Coal Strike Ahead Unless Wage Boost Gets WSB Approval

CINCINNATI (AP)—John L. Lewis was reliably reported today to be considering a nation-wide coal strike unless the government Wage Stabilization Board approves the union's recently negotiated pay boost by next Wednesday.

Lewis sent his chief legal lieutenant, Wally Hopkins, flying from the United Mine Workers Union convention here to confer today with the wage board in Washington.

The problem, it was understood, may complicate the current political situation.

Fat Contract
Lewis, who seemed to be on the verge of endorsing Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson after apparently favoring Republican nominees in the past three national elections, was holding up any flat endorsement until he sees how the Democratic administration handles his wage case.

The miners union president has just negotiated one of his fattest labor contracts in history—a pay boost of $1.90 a day, boosting the basic daily wage for miners to $18.25, plus a 10-cent increase in the tonnage royalty paid by coal mine owners to the union's welfare fund. The increase brings the royalty to 40 cents a ton, or better than 150 million dollars a year.

Coal operators have taken the position they can't pay the new contract terms until the WSB approves. It has generally been felt

McCarthy Likens Reds To Skunks

By JAMES A. O. CROWE
SAGINAW (AP)—Senator Joseph McCarthy R-Wis. last night likened the campaign against Communists to a "skunk hunt" and insisted "there is no daintier way."

Directly answering criticism by Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Democratic Senator Blair Moody D-Mich., McCarthy urged American voters to ask his critics what method they would use and how many Communists they have exposed.

"Moody says we are hurting innocent people," McCarthy said. "Ask him to name one Communist or one bad security risk he is willing to put his finger on."

He recalled that when he was a farm boy he used to be sent out to kill skunks that were eating the chickens.

"We didn't go skunk hunting with a lace handkerchief," he said. "The better the job we did, the worse we smelled. Now we are engaged in a much smellier job than that."

British To Fire Second A-Bomb

LONDON (AP)—Britons speculated today that their second atomic explosion may be set off in Australia within the next two months. The wave of conjecture followed an announcement that Britain's three top atom men would fly to Australia in early November.

The three are W. G. Penney, scientific director of Britain's first atomic explosion Oct. 2 in the desolate Monte Bello Islands off Western Australia; Sir John Cockcroft, boss of Britain's Harwell atomic energy plant; and Gen. Sir Frederick Morgan, the nation's atomic energy controller.

Penney left Australia by air today to report to Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the British Cabinet on the effects of the Oct. 2 explosion. He was flying in a special Royal Air Force plane.

Wild Footman Kills Butlers; Beautiful Lady Derby Wounded

PRESCOT, Eng. (AP)—A teen-aged apprentice footman was charged today with murdering two butlers in the stately country home of the Earl of Derby after slightly wounding beautiful Lady Derby in a berserk machinegun attack as she dined alone last night.

Lord Derby's valet also was wounded in the hand as he tried to wrest the gun from the assailant—19-year-old Harold Winstanley—who was picked up two hours later in a Liverpool phone booth, still carrying a British Army Sten gun.

Police, who brought the young ex-guardman in the British army to Magistrate's Court here today to charge him, said Winstanley admitted wounding the 31-year-old mistress of the household, then killing the two butlers who rushed into the dining room to take the gun away from him.

The youth did not speak during the brief hearing. He was led away to jail to await a preliminary hearing Oct. 17.

Heart Attack Fatal To Head Of Whirlpool Washing Machine Firm

NILES (AP)—A heart attack killed Louis C. Upton, chairman of the board of the Whirlpool Corp. of St. Joseph, here yesterday. He would have been 66 years old today.

Upton was stricken while driving to Niles from St. Joseph with three friends, who rushed him to Pawling Hospital after the attack. He had suffered from a heart ailment for some time.

He was a former vice-president of the United States Chamber of Commerce and a former president of the Michigan Manufacturers' Association.

Under Upton's guidance his firm became one of the world's largest manufacturers of home laundry equipment. It employs 6,000 persons in St. Joseph, LaPorte, Ind., and Clyde, O.

British Train Wreck Death Toll Now 107

HARROW, Eng. (AP)—The recorded death toll from Wednesday's triple train crash here rose to 107 today. Railway officials said they feared more bodies still were buried in the wreckage.

Scouts Honor Woman Doctor

OMAHA (AP)—A woman doctor who traveled 78 miles into the Wyoming mountains to attend 21 flu-stricken Boy Scouts was a guest of the grateful scouts and their parents at a banquet and court of honor last night.

Twenty-nine scouts of Omaha Explorer Post 42 had gone to the Wind River range in Wyoming Aug. 2. Five days later, 21 of the 29 were stricken with the flu.

Some of the scouts trudged 22 miles to a telephone and summoned Dr. Mary A. Nylander of Lander, one of Wyoming's few women doctors. She came 78 miles by car, jeep and horseback to treat the boys, all of whom recovered.

One of the five scouts who had escaped illness on the Wyoming expedition, Bruce Meier, 16, missed the "thank you" party for Dr. Nylander.

He was home with the flu.

Murdered TV Worker Found Under Burning Couch In Apartment

NEW YORK (AP)—The burned body of a man tentatively identified as Sanford Tilles, a television scenery artist, was found tied hand and foot with wire under a burning studio couch in a Manhattan apartment early today.

Firemen answering an alarm found the bedroom and living room of the first floor apartment in flames.

Police Capt. Henry Wade described the case as "arson and murder."

Sam Carrow, superintendent of the building, said the man worked for the National Broadcasting company and was about 35 years old.

Toot-Stop Train Of Truman Hits New York State

By ED CREAGH

ABOARD TRUMAN TRAIN (AP)—President Truman headed his whistle stop special through the home state of New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today, angling on behalf of Adlai Stevenson for the biggest election day package of all—45 electoral votes.

Launched with an assault on the Republicans' civil rights record, this next-to-last day of the President's coast-to-coast campaign trip promised to bring him into conflict with the man he whipped in the race for the White House four years ago.

Hotheads Lambasted

Truman started his New York State swing with a Buffalo speech lambasting "hotheads"—mostly Republicans, he said, but including some Democrats—who in "a wave of hysteria" have tried to win votes by hurling false charges of communism.

This sort of thing, Truman told a far-from-capacity crowd in memorial Auditorium last night, can split the country and can lead to similar attacks on Catholics, Jews, people with foreign names or any other minority.

Truman made no comment on Dewey's statement—made in a state-wide radio and television hook-up Wednesday night—that the "white supremacy" slogan on the Alabama ballot convicts Stevenson and his running mate, Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama, of the "rankest hypocrisy."

Join Crow Banner

Dewey showed TV viewers a ballot with a rooster emblem and the words "white supremacy" and "for the right."

"There it is," said Dewey, "the rooster and the banner of white rebellion."

Nixon Discusses Backbone Issue

By DICK HOENIG

ABOARD NIXON TRAIN (AP)—Sen. Richard Nixon's 11-car special winds through seven Northwestern Pennsylvania cities today with the California senator ready to consider the "backbone" of the presidential candidates a major campaign issue.

The Republican nominee for vice president will give six rear platform talks at New Castle, Meadville, Oil City, Titusville, Corry and Sharon in his second successive 14-hour day plugging for Pennsylvania's 32 electoral votes. He is scheduled to make a major address at Erie tonight before leaving for a tour of New York State.

Nixon brought up the backbone issue in every one of six speeches through Central and Eastern Pennsylvania yesterday. He explained it stemmed from a statement by Gov. Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential candidate, which Nixon said implied Dwight D. Eisenhower lacks backbone.

"I am willing to accept this as a campaign issue," Nixon said. "Where was Stevenson trained? In the State Department under Dean Acheson. Never has there been less backbone and more spineless policy than that of the present State Department."

"Stevenson has about as much backbone as Acheson and that is as little as a man can have, in my opinion," he continued.

Enthusiasm Indicates California's Votes In Bag For Eisenhower

By DON WHITEHEAD

ENROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (AP)—The Eisenhower command was inclined to count California's 32 electoral votes in the Republican column today after a tumultuous sweep through the state which went Democratic by a narrow margin four years ago.

With 11 states behind him in his current 28-state tour, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower moved early this morning into Arizona. The day's schedule called for appearances in Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz., Albuquerque, N.M., and Salt Lake City, Utah. He left his special train in Phoenix to travel by plane to the other stops.

Peace Assured By Democrats, Stevenson Says

By JACK BELL

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson turned his campaign southward today with the statement that Russia may abandon its aggressive policies because American-sponsored collective security has "worked so well."

But the Democratic presidential nominee cautioned in an address prepared for a City Auditorium rally here that the United States must be on guard against trickery in any Soviet attempt to substitute honey for vinegar.

Rebellion In Dixie

And he declared that even the chance he now sees for long-run gains toward peace "might all be sadly altered if the Republicans win in November and proceed to do what they say they will do."

Heading for New Orleans and an appeal tonight to southerners openly rebellious against the Democratic ticket, Stevenson fired heavy artillery here against Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower on what the Illinois governor called the principal issues of the presidential campaign—peace and prosperity.

He said if there is any weakening of American defense and foreign

Lutherans Argue Over New Bible

SEATTLE (AP)—Delegates to the 18th biennial session of Lutherandom's largest church pointed today to what is expected to be the most controversial session of their week-long convention—the acceptance or rejection of the revised standard version of the Bible.

The matter is expected to arise during the day with presentation of a memorial from 10 of the United Lutheran Church in America's 34 synods asking for approval of the new Bible translation.

The action of the 10 synods is in opposition to the decision of the Joint Commission on the Liturgy, which has submitted a report strongly urging retention of the King James version.

The liturgy committee is composed of members representing churches of the National Lutheran Council. It has been asked to prepare a liturgy to be used by the majority of Lutherans in the United States and Canada.

Synods joining in the request for use of the new version were Illinois, Kentucky-Tennessee, Michigan, Midwest, New Jersey, New York, Pacific, Pittsburgh, Rocky Mountain and Virginia. Their requests made no arguments in favor of the change.

Three Youths Escape

IONIA (AP)—Three young men, all serving sentences for breaking and entering in the nighttime, ran away from the Michigan Reformatory here Thursday. They were Donald Huot, 18, 2½ to 15 years from Houghton County; Elmer Martindale, 18, 1 to 15 years from Macomb County; and Donald Davis, 22, 1 to 15 years from Oakland County.

rousing outbursts wherever he appeared. His lieutenants saw in this response a promising sign of victory in the state come Nov. 4.

"I think we're safe in predicting we'll carry the state," one of the general's close advisers said.

Los Angeles gave the GOP candidate a roaring reception to match the uproarious San Francisco welcome, and last night 9,000 people jammed into the Pan Pacific Auditorium to hear him.

An estimated 20,000 stood outside to hear his speech over a public address system.

No Ghost Spokesman

He promised—if elected—that the Republicans would promote a program of social welfare which would bring increased security beyond anything yet achieved under Democratic administrations.

Eisenhower insisted it was time to take a new look at the Social Security law, to extend it, and to make it fair to all. "That is what our new administration plans to do," he said.

Eisenhower departed from his prepared script to take a lick at President Truman, whom he called a "ghost spokesman" for his Democratic Party.

Name Of MacArthur On Ballot Worries Washington G. O. P.

SEATTLE (AP)—Washington State Republicans, anticipating a very close race between their presidential nominee, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Democrat Adlai Stevenson, are worried because Gen. Douglas MacArthur's name also will be on the ballot.

The general is the candidate of the Christian Nationalist party, which has its headquarters in Los Angeles. His vice presidential running mate is Jack Tenney of Los Angeles.

No Legal Barrier

They were placed on the ballot by the Los Angeles group under a state law which allows 25 persons to make a minority party nomination on primary election day.

Republicans since have asked Secretary of State Earl C. to remove MacArthur's name. Coe said he didn't think he could and referred the matter to the state attorney general, Smith Troy, who hasn't found any legal reason for removing the name.

Blow To Hopes

R. Mort Frayn, GOP state chairman, said it is conceivable that in an extremely close election MacArthur could draw enough Eisenhower votes to give Stevenson the state's nine electoral votes.

Washington has voted Democrat in every election since 1928. President Truman's margin was 89,850 votes in 1948 but Henry Wallace polled 31,692 votes which it is believed were largely taken from Truman.

This year, Republicans had hoped to eliminate that margin. Now they say they may do so—only to have the MacArthur—Tenney ticket scare them almost out of hopes of success.

Reds Battered In Clash With South Koreans

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—A human sea of fanatical Chinese Reds pushed South Korean soldiers off White Horse mountain tonight but the bone-weary U. N. troops scrambled right back to the top and battled the Reds hand to hand in a drenching rain.

The ROKS stormed back less than two hours after a fresh battalion of about 750 of screaming Chinese drove them from the top to the base of the hill mass.

The Red attack a few hours earlier had come as no surprise.

After the battered Reds were driven off White Horse shortly after noon, Allied observers spotted 1,500 to 2,000 Chinese reforming north of the hill.

"They're not finished by a long shot," an Allied officer said.

Allied big guns plastered the area with big bursting shells.

The Chinese grip on the hill was broken in a vicious 10-minute bayonet fight atop the crest earlier this afternoon. It was the third time today the ROKS had taken the key hill which guards the Chorwon gateway to South Korea. Twice they were thrown back—only to fight back to the top.

In Fight 90 Hours

Sharp and bitter battles flared elsewhere along the 155-mile battlefield. But there was nothing to compare with the carnage on White Horse.

The battle-weary ROK troops wrote their "stay! fight!" motto in blood on the shell-pocked peak.

By frontline estimate, the Chinese have already lost 8,000 casualties in trying to save face on the strategic height.

The fighting had raged for 90 hours with hardly a break.

Reckless Chinese assaults through blistering Allied artillery fire cost the Reds a staggering number of dead.

Not since Heartbreak Ridge a year ago has a hill cost so much blood.

The last assault by the ROK Ninth Division took only 10 minutes to drive the battered Chinese from the crest.

Airliner Loses Bag Of $50,000

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A thorough investigation was under way today to determine how $50,000 in cash disappeared from a luxurious airliner as it winged its way from Miami to Lima, Peru.

Puzzled officials of Pan American-Grace Airways (Panagra) said the money might have been stolen in flight or while the four-engined DC6 stopped briefly at Panama and Guayaquil en route.

W. F. Lewis, assistant treasurer of Panagra who came here from New York to head the investigation, said there was also a possibility the cash might have been "misdirected."

The loss was discovered Sunday when the airliner El Inter-Americano landed at Lima. The Panagra New York office said a bag containing the money was found ripped open.

The last big loss of treasure in air transit occurred in Canada last month. Gold weighing nearly half a ton was stolen at the Toronto airport Sept. 24. It was legally worth about $215,000 but would have brought more than $300,000 on the U. S. market.

Answer Revised By Lindenthal In Norton Suit

An amended answer in which Frank J. Lindenthal denies the amount of money alleged by the plaintiff to have been paid by John P. Norton in the purchase of the Delta Broadcasting Company was filed last week in the Norton estate's suit for accounting against Frank and George Lindenthal and the Delta Broadcasting Company.

It is the 46th instrument to be entered in the suit which was instituted by John P. Norton, late publisher of the Daily Press, May 18, 1950. After his death July 12, 1950, his executor, Atty. James E. Frost, became the plaintiff in the suit.

Replying to the plaintiff's belief that John P. Norton paid $30,430.49 toward the acquisition of stock in the defendant radio station, Frank Lindenthal denies that figure and states that Norton "did in fact pay a sum of $27,673.27, less whatever was paid by William Duchaine."

Misallocation Charged
In his original answer, filed in April of this year, Frank Lindenthal did not deny Norton's payment of the alleged sum of money but admitted that the allocation of stock did not bear a "direct proportion to amounts of money then paid by Norton and the defendants", and added that the allocation was the result of an agreement and understanding between the purchasing parties.

This statement was in reply to the plaintiff's complaint that payment of $30,430.49 by Norton of the $39,999 total purchase price of that station entitled the late publisher to more than 61 shares of stock which he subsequently received. In the distribution of stock 72 shares were issued to Frank Lindenthal and one to Duchaine.

The plaintiff charged that such distribution "constituted a fraud practiced upon the deceased."

In further alteration of his answer Frank Lindenthal contends that in addition to his duties as general manager of the Daily Press and in addition to the duties of George Lindenthal in connection with the Delta Broadcasting Company, both defendants served John P. Norton and his wife Anna Norton, as "personal attendants". Each of them, he continues "devoted a considerable portion of what would have been 'spare time' to ministering to the personal needs, wants and requirements of said elderly people, daily."

Brothers "Personal Attendants"
He cites that the relationship between himself, George Lindenthal and Mr. and Mrs. Norton "was more than a relationship between employee and employer . . . in that the relationship between the four persons was very similar to a family type relationship in that these defendants attended Mr. and Mrs. Norton daily, accompanied them to various hospitals and clinics and attended to their personal shopping, drove them about on personal business and generally cared for them as they required and demanded such care."

In other portions of his answer the defendant disclaims sufficient recollection or information to form a belief as to accuracy of amounts, details and dates of various disbursements cited by the plaintiff.

Norton bequeathed his estate, including the Escanaba Daily Press, stock in the Delta Broadcasting Company, and other properties, to the Escanaba school district to establish the Anna C. Norton Scholarship Fund as a memorial to his wife.

He died approximately two months after originating the suit against the Lindenthal brothers for an accounting of the handling of the funds of his estate.

The case was placed on the February, May and August terms of Circuit Court here and was continued each time to the following term.

5-Year Program For Road Improvements In Townships Approved

A five year local road improvement plan to resurface 240 miles of gravel road in the county in a long-range project was tentatively approved by township supervisors in a special meeting last night with the road commission.

If the plan, proposed by Delta county road commission Superintendent-engineer, William Karas, is approved by the individual townships then the gravel resurfacing program will go into effect the first of the year and will assure the townships a firm local road improvement system under contract.

Donate $60,000 Annually
According to Karas, the plan will bring in from the townships, if all 14 of the units approve it, about $60,000 annually and will provide, in addition to the state contribution, for gravel resurfacing of 240 miles of county roads.

After the plan was outlined to them by Karas, the supervisors present voted in roll call 9 to 0 to give tentative approval to the proposed plan, subjected to final approval of each township board.

Briefly Told

Dismissed From Hospital—Dr. Karl E. Gray, who suffered an ankle fracture in an accident while bird hunting, has been dismissed from St. Francis Hospital but will be confined to his home, 810 Lake Shore Drive until the first part of the coming week.

Sells Swiss Bull—Joseph Steil, a Brown Swiss breeder of Cornell, has recently sold the bull Larry of Delta Swiss Farm to Einar Carlson, Daggett, Mich., according to a report from Fred S. Idise, secretary of the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association, Beloit, Wisconsin.

Issue Gun Permits—Permits to carry concealed weapons were issued yesterday by County Clerk Mary Constantineau to four applicants after approval was granted by law enforcement officers. The permits will go to Lee Cooper, 1201 Ludington St.; Herbert Westlund of Rock; John Bryak, Escanaba, Rte. 1; and Eugene Auger, 509 S. 8th St.

Hobo Band At Powers—Escanaba's 8-piece Hobo Band entertained patients at Pinecrest Sanitarium Thursday evening with a varied program of old time and popular selections. The appearance was made possible through the cooperation of Escanaba local 663, A. F. of M., and a grant from the Musician's Recording Fund. It is the final concert in Powers by the group this season, several other programs having been played by the band during the past several months.

Driver Ticketed—Archie U. Bazinet Jr. of Rock was ticketed by Escanaba police yesterday for reckless driving on Danforth road; Victor Johnson of 1015 Eighth Ave. S., was ticketed today for failure to yield the right of way following a collision with another car at 15th St., and Ludington; and James V. Cook, Milwaukee, was ticketed for excessive speed when his car failed to negotiate the turn on 23rd Street and Lake Shore Drive and crashed into a telephone pole.

Phalen Heads Scout Council

Dave Phalen of Nahma was re-elected chairman of the Red Buck District, Boy Scouts of America, at a dinner meeting of district committeemen at Bark River last night.

Phalen, who also is active in the Hiawathaland council, of which the Red Buck district is a part, is a former scoutmaster, neighborhood scout commissioner and district camp committee member. He is a member of the Hiawathaland Council executive board.

Nyal Witham, Lyle Shaw and Clarence Zerbel, all of Escanaba, were elected vice chairmen of the district, to serve as representatives to the Hiawathaland Council executive board.

Anderson Representative
Glen Leonard, of Escanaba, was reappointed district scout commissioner and will supervise the work of a neighborhood commissioner staff which services Boy Scout and Cub Scout units throughout the Red Buck district. The district consists of Delta, Schoolcraft and North Menominee counties.

Atty. William Anderson, of Escanaba, was appointed by Chairman Phalen to serve as the district's representative on the Hiawathaland Council's National Jamboree committee. The jamboree will be held July 17-23 at Irvine Ranch in California. Fifty thousand of the nation's Boy Scouts will attend.

Phalen appointed the following as chairmen of the district's operating committees for the ensuing year:

Church Award Plan
Leadership training, Clarence Zerbel of Escanaba; camping, Oscar Ohman, of Gladstone; special activities, Reuben Sjoquist, of Gladstone; advancement, S. E. Decker, of Escanaba; finance, James T. Jones, of Gladstone; and health and safety, Dr. William Harrison, of Escanaba.

The group discussed plans to extend scouting to more boys through the organization of several more scout units throughout the district. Andy Houston, district scout executive, outlined scouting's church award program.

The next meeting of the Red Buck district committee will be held Nov. 6 at Powers.

Red Feather Thermometer For Chest Drive Will Be Erected At Junior High

The huge Red Feather sign constructed by Birdseye Veneer Company of Escanaba will again be erected in a prominent location in the business district to mark the progress of the Escanaba Community Chest campaign toward its goal of $12,500.

Bruce Brackett, city chairman, announced this morning that the big "feather" will be erected diagonally in the southeast corner of the Escanaba Junior High School lawn facing eastbound traffic on Ludington street.

In case you're not acquainted with the use of the big "feather", it must be explained that the sign serves as a progress "thermometer" to chart the progress of the campaign.

'Paint It Red'
"Make the feather red" is the battle cry of Escanaba's army of Community Chest solicitors. The job was accomplished this year, and there is indication that this year's drive will be equally successful.

J. L. Hendricks Will Head C-C

J. Lee Hendricks was elected president of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce for the ensuing year at the annual election meeting Thursday. He succeeds John Fawcett as president.

Other officers elected are Carl W. Benzing, first vice president; A. J. Goulais, second vice president; W. J. Schmitt, treasurer, and Hugh Grow, secretary.

The budget for the year was approved by the directors. Expenditures budgeted are $15,948.86 and estimated receipts are $16,325.

The secretary and president were authorized to attend the state secretary's meeting at Traverse City Oct. 16-18.

Arthritis Struck Me From Head to Foot, Confining Me to Davenport 3 Months

Mrs. Alva Snyder, 5525 Whitfield, Detroit, couldn't move her arms and legs, and had to be fed and cared for. O-JIB-WA BITTERS brought such good results that she offers this indorsement for the help of others.

"Pneumonia brought on acute arthritis and for three months I could not move from my davenport. I couldn't even move my hands or arms. The pains and stiffness had subsided so greatly that I was able to do my housework again and even my washing. I have recently washed the kitchen walls and waxed my furniture, which to me seems wonderful. Altogether, I have taken O-JIB-WA BITTERS three months and the only time I suffer at all is when I overdo it. Needless to say, I think O-JIB-WA BITTERS is truly wonderful. In fact, had pains from my head to my feet. I took many medicines and treatments with no benefit before reading what other people said in my paper. I took the medicine 10 days before I started to see results, and as I continued taking the medicine I improved. By the time I had taken it six weeks, the pains and stiffness had subsided so greatly that I was able to do my housework again and even my washing. ## Local Group To Seek REA Funds For Power Plant

Representatives of the City of Escanaba, City of Gladstone and the Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative Association will leave Sunday for Washington, D. C., to confer with Rural Electrification Administration officials regarding the possibility of a federal loan to construct an electric power plant to serve Delta county's needs.

The meeting in Washington, which may continue for a day or two, is scheduled for Monday morning.

Arrangements for the conference were made by Wynand Nieuwenkamp, Gladstone, manager of the Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative Association.

Nine In Delegation

Raymond Berger, Wilson, Alger-Delta Electric Co-op board of directors president, Nieuwenkamp and the Electric Co-op's attorney, Clair J. Hoehn of Gladstone, will represent the Electric Cooperative at the meeting.

The City of Gladstone will be represented by Commissioner Adam Sinclair, Gladstone mayor; H. J. Hendrickson, city manager; and City Attorney J. Clyde McGonagle.

Escanaba will be represented by Councilman Robert E. LeMire, who is also mayor of the city; City Manager A. V. Aronson, and City Attorney James Fitzharris.

Would Cost $6 Million

The conference in Washington is the outcome of studies and explorations of possible financing of a new electric generating plant to serve the area.

The cost of constructing such a plant to serve the entire area has been estimated at $6,000,000.

More than a year ago Escanaba was advised by Upper Michigan Power & Light Company and its parent concern, the Mead Corporation of Chillicothe, O., that it no longer desired to supply electric power to the city. Gladstone and Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative were later similarly advised.

Escanaba's contract for power with Upper Michigan Power & Light expires in 1958. Gladstone and the Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative at an earlier date.

Private Firms Uninterested

Mead Corporation officials said it wants to get out of the power business and concentrate on expansion of its subsidiary here, the Escanaba Paper Company. All of the electric power now produced by hydroelectric plants on the Escanaba river and a steam generating plant at the paper mill will be used by the company itself, it was explained.

Private power companies have so far shown no interest in the electric problem facing the Gladstone and Escanaba communities and the Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative.

The local delegation will seek in Washington to determine whether federal funds are obtainable to construct a plant, and if so at what rate of interest.

Enforcement Of City Zoning Laws Studied

Enforcement of a city ordinance governing Class A residential area was considered at length by the Escanaba Planning commission at its regular meeting last night.

According to a survey of meters installed, there are about 214 Class A homes which have two meters or commercial rate privileges, indicating that more than one family lives in the dwelling.

In some Class A homes, the families of the owners have grown up, and the owners rent an upstairs apartment for added income. Robert Clayton, city planner, noted the commission.

Use Clemenstine Records

Restriction of Class A residential area to single family dwellings is accomplished through a zoning ordinance passed in 1929. However, the ordinance has never been strictly enforced, and a survey of all single family, two-family and multiple family dwellings was not made when the ordinance was passed.

"There's a danger in going back, for we have no starting point," A. V. Aronson, city manager reported. He said he felt many areas would rather have Class B restrictions now, rather than Class A.

Use of the Clemenstine appraisal of all homes in Escanaba in 1941, prepared at that time to equalize valuations, was considered by commission members as a possible starting point.

Shouldn't Legalize Violations

The consensus of the commission was that the ordinance should be enforced, and that if a majority of property owners in specific areas wanted Class B rather than Class A, it should be considered. The commission was adamant, however, on the matter of violations.

Members stated that attempts should not be made to legalize violations. If a few property owners in a Class A residential area are making illegal gains by violating single-family restrictions, the majority should not have their property values depreciated by converting the area to Class B, commission members declared.

The commission favored a proposal to stop all future conversions from single-family dwellings in Class A area, and enforcement of the zoning ordinance, after a survey has been made of dwellings in the city. Bringing the Clemenstine appraisal up-to-date was considered the best method.

Need Yearly Permit

The Planning Commission tabled the matter for further study last night. Members considered a

Large Bear Killed By Car Near Farm Of Adolph Lippens

ST. NICHOLAS—One too many foraging trips to the orchard on the Adolph Lippens farm cost the life of a 400-pound black bear here last night.

The bear was killed when it was struck by a car driven by Germaine Lippens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lippens, on the county road about 100 feet from the Lippens driveway. The accident occurred about 10:30 p. m. when Miss Lippens, Bernice Lippens, Laura Heynssens, Mary and Madeline Verbrigghe and Joyce Beauchamp were returning from a church meeting at Perkins. The car was damaged.

The bear was found dead alongside the road in the ditch this morning by Mr. Lippens, who set out with gun in hand to look for it.

About four years ago Lippens shot "Old Three Toes", a big bear that had raided the Lippens farm, killed several head of cattle and avoided capture by hunters and state trappers for several years.

Harnischfeger corporation to industrial from Class A residential was approved by the commission. Included in the zoning change recommended is extension of the industrial zone in that area to 23rd street and changing a half-block east of 23rd street from Class A to Class B residential.

The commission last night also approved sale of four lots of city-owned land near 23rd street and Fifth avenue north for industrial development. Dale Vinette a commission member, is seeking the site because present location of his establishment is too small.

Zoning Changes Recommended

The city engineering department proposed revising the previous plat because savings can be made on utility installations. The new plat, Loren Jenkins, city engineer, stated, will save 555 feet of streets, 500 feet of sanitary sewers, 550 feet of water main and 1400 feet of storm sewer. Water mains cost $3-$4 a foot and storm sewers $2-$3 a foot, he reported.

Split Of Tourist Dollar Analyzed

Retail establishments, food stores and restaurants, and hotels, resorts and rooming houses together get 64 cents out of every tourist dollar.

That's the average, as worked out on a national scale by Babson's Reports, a copy of which has been received by the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau.

Retail purchases of all kinds takes 25 cents out of each dollar, according to the report. That is, one-fourth of all money spent by tourists goes into a community's retail establishments such as clothing, department, drug, souvenir and novelty stores. Another 22 cents is spent in food stores and restaurants.

Third largest share in the tourist dollar—17 cents—is spent for lodging in hotels, resorts, camps, motels, rooming houses and other tourist accommodations.

Surprisingly, only 19 cents out of every dollar goes for transportation, with 12 cents of that portion being spent for gasoline and oil for cars and seven cents for bus, air, rail and water transportation. That's the national average, but the amount spent by visitors to the Peninsula, because of distance involved, may be larger.

The remaining 17 cents, according to Babson's Reports, is spent as follows: Nine cents for amusements and movies, five cents for confections and roadside stands, and three cents for incidentals.

"When we realize the large number of tourist dollars spent in Peninsula communities this year, and figure where portions of each dollar went, we get an idea of the large number of businesses they have helped," the Development Bureau said.

"Taking into further consideration the fact that each business establishment has to pay its employees, buy goods and fuel, pay rent and taxes, along with normal expenses of upkeep, then we get a good idea of the extensive benefits we receive from tourist dollars. The average citizen may not realize it, but he, too, benefits to some degree from the big tourist season we had this year."

Fire Danger High, Sportsmen Warned

Woods and fields are drying out under the effect of sunshine and wind and the forest fire hazard is now high in Delta county, according to John Chriske, Escanaba district supervisor for the Conservation Department.

Chriske asked the cooperation of sportsmen in being careful with fire in the woods this coming weekend, unless rain should come. Frosts have killed ferns and other vegetation and the ground is covered with leaves, Chriske pointed out. A match carelessly tossed on the ground could cause a serious fire at this time.

More Equitable Sharing Of Korean Burden Asked By Lie

SECRETARY General Trygve Lie of the United Nations said a real mouthful in addressing the General Assembly the other night when he said that there must be a "more equitable sharing of the burden" in Korea.

The Korean war has been heralded as a United Nations police action but most of the fighting has been done by American troops and most of the cost paid by the American taxpayers.

It's about time that the other 59 nations of the U. N. decide to bear their share of the Korean war burden. Many of the nations have offered token assistance but none has made a sacrifice even remotely proportionate to the sacrifice of the United States in Korea.

Secretary General Lie might also have said—unfortunately he did not say it—that it's about time also to reappraise the Korean war and to decide either to fight it to a conclusion—with all restrictions off—or to get out of Korea entirely. We cannot fight a treadmill war in Korea indefinitely. It is costly both in lives and in weapons of war and all so futile because we are not permitted to strive for victory.

The Communist action in Korea is carried forth by Chinese Reds but we are not permitted to break up their reinforcing areas north of the Yalu river. We must wait until the Chinese Reds are fully manned, fully supported and ready for action in Korea. Then and only then are we permitted to hit them.

This kind of a war could go on and on without ever reaching a decision but it would continue to be costly to the United States which is bearing the brunt of the defense.

Trygve Lie certainly was right when he said that there must be a more equitable sharing of the burden.

THERE'S a "mess" in Moscow, too!

A report of Soviet difficulties comes from Prof. Albert Parry of Colgate University, who reads many Russian publications regularly. Parry relates that the Moscow press has been getting pretty cross lately at official bigwigs who turn in false reports.

It seems that the comrades who head bureaus and factories have been finding it tough to keep pace with the latest five-year production plan. And to save face, as well as their necks, they've been padding the figures.

One expose, fittingly dubbed the "Mirage of the Steppe," recently spotlighted the official of a large district who had been turning in reports of vast dams and irrigation works. These projects looked fine on the plan's official tally sheets until someone finally checked up and found that they'd never been built.

Another case of figure-fibbing was turned up in the city of Gorky. There, officials charged with opening new retail stores stuck up a number of flimsy shacks and counted them in their report as newly established stores. "Soon enough," reports the newspaper which broke open the scandal, "the shacks fall apart, but still remain in the data as freshly opened trading centers."

As dozens of similar mirages have been turned up in agriculture and industry, the Kremlin has indicated that it's getting pretty fed up with them. If past performances mean anything, it is probable that future culprits will be in grave danger of losing their heads.

Since the Russians never give out any absolute figures when they report how they're doing with their production plans—they only talk about percentages of improvement—the West has never really been sure exactly how far they've progressed.

Now, with the official Soviet press coming right out and admitting that the figure-padding practice is widespread and has been for quite a time, it may be that the Kremlin doesn't actually know either.

The Doctor Says . . .

Keep Track of Luncheon Diet Of Growing Children in School

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Few things play a more important part in the health of growing children than what they eat. They must have enough calcium for their bones and teeth, enough iron for their blood, enough calories so that they will have some left over for growth after vigorous exercise, and enough vitamins.

It is at school age that youngsters first begin to get away from the dietary control of their homes, and yet as much attention should be given to food at this time as at any other.

Breakfast and supper are usually still taken at home, but luncheon is often another matter, and yet this is just as important as the other meals.

Many schools have cafeterias where the youngsters choose their own food. Some children do poorly at this, and should be carefully instructed by the mother as to what they should have each day, and how much to pay for it. A bottle of pop and a piece of pie a la mode is hardly a balanced meal.

Of course, the lunch should be considered in relation to what foods are given at other meals. If, for example, milk is not taken at breakfast and supper, then it should certainly be obtained at noon. In addition to milk, lunch should include some protein food such as meat, eggs, cheese or fish, some bread and butter or potato, and some green vegetable or fruit.

Often parents prefer to give the youngster his own lunch to take from home. If milk can be obtained at school in addition, well and good. If not, a thermos bottle of milk can be included.

The same principles apply to the home-prepared lunch as to those just mentioned. Sandwiches, buttered and filled with meat, eggs, tomato, lettuce and the like, changed from day to day, are usually satisfactory and attractive to most youngsters.

An apple, orange, peach or some similar fruit will supply another important need. If the child has a sweet tooth, a piece of chocolate can be included for dessert.

CHECK WITH YOUNGSTER

The youngster should actually eat the lunch which is supplied. Some children, unless watched, will trade off their fruit for a piece of pie or pop, and thus not get the balanced meal which they are supposed to eat. A little tactful questioning and checking up every few days is in order.

The importance of a good diet for growing children cannot be stressed too much. But at the same time parents should not hound their children about food every day.

If the diet week by week is satisfactory, and if the child is growing normally and getting neither too fat nor too thin, the chances are that he (or she) is eating all right.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

EN ROUTE THROUGH THE WEST.—In an earlier column on Senator Nixon's secret expense fund it was shown how he voted right down the line for the legislative measures which his 76 millionaire givers favored.

The second question to be examined is whether Senator Nixon also used influence with the federal government on behalf of his Nixon expense club. In his broadcast to the nation Nixon said he had not. A few days later, however, the St. Louis Post Dispatch unearthed the fact that Dana Smith, the lawyer who collected the $18,000 for Nixon, had used Nixon's influence through his administrative assistance to try to get a $500,000 tax refund from the government.

It is a penitentiary offense for any member of Congress to intervene in a case against the government for pay. A senator is paid by the United States Government and is supposed to represent the government alone. Hence the law. He is not supposed to be paid by outsiders, and other members of Congress have gone to jail for accepting money when they intervened in cases against the federal government.

The tax refund claimed by Dana Smith against the U. S. Government is an illustration. Dana Smith, the man who got Nixon's office to intervene, not only had paid Nixon personally but raised $18,000 for him.

RISKY BUSINESS

Today the federal government plays such an important role in the operation of any business firm, and business firms in turn seek so many concessions or contracts from the government, but it becomes risky to have a man in the senate who is subsidized by a group of businessmen.

Take, for instance, the list of Nixon's millionaires club and the concessions or contracts they have with the government. Here are some of them:

Charles E. Ducommun, a Los Angeles steel dealer got a 50 per cent tax amortization write-off on a new $265,655 warehouse. It is not known where Nixon or his office helped.

Such matters are kept confidential by the Defense Production Administration and sometimes not even recorded.

Earl Jorgensen and Company got a 75 per cent tax write-off on forging equipment, Sept. 20, 1951; another 60 per cent write-off on $227,236 on July 18; another 50 per cent write-off on $343,500 on Feb. 4, 1952. It is not known that Nixon's office helped get these write-offs. Jorgensen is a giver to the Nixon fund.

Clayton Manufacturing Co. got a 90 per cent tax write-off on dynamometers costing $33,106 in March 1951 and an 80 per cent write-off on $171,330 on steam cleaners in July 1951. Both Benjamin Clayton and his son William are givers to Nixon's expenses.

K. T. Norris, ammunitions manufacturer, got a 75 per cent tax write-off on $193,650 in September 1951. He is a donor to Mr. Nixon's expenses.

Even more important, the Norris Company has defense contracts totaling $54,000,000 with the Army and Navy. Morris leases one plant from the government at Riverbank, Calif., also operates plants of his own, where he manufactures 37 millimeter shells, 75's, 90 millimeters, 105's and 155's. Whether Senator Nixon has used any influence with any members of the Defense Department regarding these contracts is something I have not been able to ascertain. But it's an unhealthy practice for any company doing business with the government to be subsidizing a senator.

Herbert Hoover Jr. has an important contract with the Federal Government to explore for oil in the oil regions in Northern Alaska. He is president of the United Geophysical Co., which has signed the Alaskan contract with the Navy. United Geophysical is a wholly owned subsidiary of Union Oil, of which Hoover is also not only a director but holds 30,249 shares valued at $1,200,000. Hoover is a contributor to the Nixon fund.

W. Herbert Allen is vice president of the Title Insurance and Trust Co., which underwrites the oil leases of the big companies operating out in the tideland oil area. If these leases should be outlawed, then Mr. Allen's company might be left holding the bag for about $49,000,000. Mr. Allen is a contributor to the Nixon funds.

Arthur S. Crites of Bakersfield is an applicant before the Federal Government for a mineral land permit in Southern California. To get such a permit accepted, a little influence sometimes is helpful. Crites is a member of the Nixon expense fund club.

Crites is also vice president of the Bakersfield Home Building Association and secretary and director of the Kern County Mutual Building and Loan Association.

It so happens that Nixon's record in the senate has been made to order for the Mutual Savings Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Manistique—Mr. and Mrs. Adam Heinz and daughter, Susan, have returned from a nine-day motor trip to South Dakota. They visited the Black Hills, Mt. Rushmore and the largest gold mine at Deadwood, S. D.

20 YEARS AGO

Escanaba—Four carloads of flour were received yesterday by Delta County Red Cross chapter and are being distributed to needy families.

Wells—Organization of a sewing club has been completed, and Miss Ellen Michaud has been elected president. Other officers are Priscilla St. Thomas, vice president; Norma Pearson, secretary; and Olive Jean Burby, treasurer.

Fun Along the Campaign Highway

'Vindicated' McCarthy Smiles; Fairchild In Role Of Underdog

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—(NEA)—Sen. Joe McCarthy is campaigning for reelection with the manner of one who has emerged from the chill of loneliness into the warm sun of approval and vindication. He is indulgent of his critics. He is patient with charges that his way of fighting communism has hurt innocent persons.

Stumping the state he moves onto the platform after the crowd has warmed up on his campaign song: "Joe McCarthy, a swell guy, a real guy, Wisconsin's great American . . ."

He takes humble notice of the 515,481 votes cast for him in the Sept. 9 Republican primary, 70,000 more than all other candidates in both parties put together. "I'm deeply grateful," he says in an emotional tone. "There were times during the last two years when I was a bit lonely in Washington. It's a great feeling to know I'll have so many partners in this fight now."

"You can't expose Communist influence in the State Department with lace handkerchief methods. Some say we ought to use other methods. I'd like to see them try. If we elect a Republican president, instead of getting gentler and daintier the fight is going to get rougher and rougher."

In this mood of reinforced aggressiveness, McCarthy, one of the most controversial political figures of this generation, campaigns for reelection against Thomas E. Fairchild, Democrat and former state attorney general.

The Senator behaves like a man who has it in the bag. So sure is he of the Nov. 4 outcome that he is venturing outside Wisconsin to help other GOP nominees.

McCarthy tells farmers, factory workers and everybody else there is only one issue: the danger of communism. He lets his voice quaver ominously:

"The voters hire us to man the watchtowers of this nation. We must have the guts to call the roll of traitors. I've been calling the roll. Those that won't should be taken down from the watchtow-

ers. I think many will be this fall."

In this self-portrait, McCarthy gives the apparent cut to his tremendous primary triumph. Wisconsin analysts, noting that he swept industrial areas, farm sectors, nationality groups, women, every segment of the voting populace, concluded it was McCarthy vs. Joseph Stalin.

In other words, they felt the Senator had succeeded in projecting himself as the nation's No. 1 foe of the Kremlin and its agents.

Republican leaders now see McCarthy so strong that he is independent of General Eisenhower's fate in Wisconsin Nov. 4.

Against him, Tom Fairchild is an underdog running on a shoe-string. There's no triumphant motor caravan—just one gray Chevrolet with a recording of "On Wisconsin," from which Fairchild announces his own street-corner appearances.

A tall, slim man in a brown suit, with a lean face, rimless glasses and a gentlemanly air, he delivers his spiel while his aide passes out campaign cards—the vital ammunition of a shoe-string candidate.

So They Say

I smoke 70 cigarettes a day, which I can't afford out of my own money.—Peter K. Burrage of Epson, England, explaining why he embezzled $2.65 from his employer.

No thinking American is going to fall for the idea that you can put Adlai Stevenson at the wheel with Harry Truman not doing the driving from the back seat.—GOP National Committeeman Arthur Cummerville.

The Communists are unbaten in battle and the only logic they can understand is military pressure.—Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, former chief UN truce negotiator in Korea.

Sometime Fairchild almost runs out of cards—and occasionally the street-corner candidate can't find a corner. As the speaking backdrop shifts from town to town, from post office to barber shop to grocery store, here and there you can count the crowd on the fingers of two hands.

The spartan look of Fairchild's campaign is evident, too, in his Milwaukee headquarters. The money and the organization needed to put a richer luster on Fairchild's campaign just aren't in sight. Wisconsin folk and outsiders alike closed their purses when McCarthy ran up his big primary vote.

What Fairchild does bring to his fight against his formidable Republican opponent is a full kit of principles, since these can be had free.

A plain-spoken man of 39 who looks like what he is—an earnest young lawyer—he was his 1948 victory as attorney general that won him attention. He was the only Democratic state candidate to win—and the first to do so since 1934.

In 1950 he ran against Senator Wiley, losing by 80,000, but got more votes than any Democrat in a long time. He was a reluctant runner this time, getting into the race at the very end.

Fairchild doesn't bludgeon McCarthy the way most of his opponents do. He isn't the type. Besides, Democrats believe the all-out primary attacks on McCarthy made votes for him.

Instead, Fairchild stresses prosperity under Democratic rule and the protection gained by farmers, workers and the others under that same wing.

On the issue of fighting Communists in government, he says only that it can be done "without violating individual rights and such fundamentals of American justice as decency and fair play."

If Fairchild should confound the experts, it would be one of the few times in American political history when an underdog won an uphill fight on a shoe-string and a packet of principles untinted by emotion.

DEMOCRAT Fairchild: Spartan look of underdog. REPUBLICAN McCarthy: Warm sun of approval.

Good Evening . . .

By CLINT DUNATHAN

FOR THE YOUNGSTERS—Call it Club 314, the Recreation Center, or even "the Rec" as some of the youngsters do—it is still just about the best thing for Escanaba's young people that has ever happened.

The big building—some people used to describe it as banlike—was built and used for many years as the First Baptist Church. It has been altered and improved since the city purchased it a decade or so ago until today its interior is pleasant and colorful.

Exterior appearance is deceiving, however, and of little importance so far as the activities within are concerned. There is more fun going on there four nights of the week than you can shake a ping-pong paddle at.

PART OF A PROGRAM—As most Escanabans know, the Recreation Center is operated by the city as part of its recreation program, directed by Art Petersen.

During the summer months the recreation program is centered largely around outdoors activities, with swimming at Ludington Park beach the principal attraction.

Winter brings the skating program on a number of established rinks, plus the opening of the Recreation Center about the time school reopens.

POPULAR PLACE—The Recreation Center opened with a bang a few days ago. Parents were invited to attend the opener. A few of them did—but most parents of teenagers stayed away. Perhaps they realize their absence would be welcomed by their sons and daughters.

Parents also know the Recreation Center is well supervised by a staff that can keep order without being obtrusive and spoiling the fun.

Art Petersen tells me that within the past five evenings since the club opened a total of 270 boys and girls registered as members of Club 314. The total membership is expected to reach 500 within the next two weeks.

Paul Vardigan is employed to handle the basketball court in the evening at the Club. Mrs. Bertha LaChapelle is director of Club 314, and Francis Lueneberg is assistant director. Mrs. LaChapelle has been on the staff for 10 years, Lueneberg for five years.

FOUR NIGHTS WEEKLY—Club 314 is open from 7 to 10 p. m. four night a week—on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays. During the afternoons it is open Mondays through Fridays.

Thursday nights are by tradition "church nights" for the youngsters, and no activities are scheduled at the Club. If the children do not on that evening engage in some church activity it is the responsibility of the parents. At least they are not at Club 314.

The Club offers many facilities for recreation for young people. The second floor is given over to a basketball court with a schedule of hours for different age groups. The girls have the basketball floor on Friday nights.

On the first floor of the Club is the juke box and space for dancing. If the space seems crowded—270 members mean a lot of crowding. But the teenagers like it that way.

There is a game room with pool and ping-pong tables. Right now, for reasons of their own, the youngsters have taken up checkers, reports Art Petersen.

A reading room is set aside for those who want to peruse everything from the classics to comic books. Pop, candy and gum are available at the Club.

FUN FOR EVERYBODY—In an effort to determine just what makes Club 314 so popular, we asked some of the boys and girls who go there what it is they like about it.

Some of the boys said basketball, others said ping-pong. But one girl surprised us by blurring:

"Boys and dancing!"

"And what do the boys like?" we asked.

"Pool," she replied disconsolately, apparently with one particular boy in mind.

Without revealing more, it should be pointed out for the benefit of parents that rules at the Club are strictly adhered to by the members. They take exceptionally good care not to damage the facilities provided for them, Petersen said. And he and his staff are pleased that teenagers like to go there.

Power With Words

By Dr. C. E. Funk

Kansas City, Mo.—"Which is proper: (1) There is a dissension of opinion among us, or (2) there is a difference of opinion among us?"—K. J.

Answer.—Dissension means "strong difference of opinion." Accordingly, you might say either, "There is dissension among us," or "there is a difference of opinion among us," depending upon your exact meaning. But "dissension of opinion" is redundant, that is, it carries more words than are necessary.

Buffalo, N. Y.—"What is the correct heading, salutation, and complimentary close of a letter addressed to the President of the United States?"—Miss B. M.

Answer.—Several forms may be used, but the simplest heading is: The President, White House, Washington, D. C. The simplest salutation is: Sir. And the simplest close is: Respectfully yours.

Mrs. C. A. E. Savannah, Ga.—The preferred American pronunciation of liquor is li-KUR, "i" as in "habit," "ur" as in "cur."

Bay City, Mich.—"In the insurance business a certain kind of commission, I have been told, is always known as an overriding commission, such as that received by a general agent from the commissions received by the agents under him. But there are those who feel that this should be called an overwriting commission. Which is correct?"—M. B. E.

Answer.—Both terms have been used, but in the insurance business, as in others in which a similar practice is observed, overriding commission is now preferred.

Baseball Frill Boys Irk Ruark

By ROBERT C. RUARK

NEW YORK—It is the habit of the pundits, when they take down with October ennui over politics and the world, to seize onto the World Series as if they just discovered it, and to write it full of fine phrases proving that baseball is a sort of sociological experiment, reflecting credit on America.

They write the big picture, the city-side appreciation of pure sports, the broad-angled view from the civilian standpoint. They would never come right out and say that large John Mize played a helluva series for an old goat who's supposed to be washed up for the last four years.

Instead, they write you a scholarly piece about Master Mize's exploits with the bat, pointing up the fact that life need not be over at 40; that the full fruits of lusty living are still to be tasted for Autumnal gentlemen with the frost in their hair. They forget Mize, from that point on and launch into a crumble on old age in the vitamin-pill-and-penicillin age.

Baseball Is News
What I don't like about the pundits, both on the column and editorial pages, is that they are so patronizing about the series when it finally arrives in the fall. They write the cute little bits, painfully coy ones, apprising the people that no work will be done and many grandmothers will have funerals at the start of the series. At the end of the series they say well done to both sides, and isn't it nice that this still happens here, and they wonder editorially if the Russians are having that much fun.

I say phooey on the hard-news boys who come muscling into the sportswriting preserves after all the tough work's done, hogging the climax as their own baby, and forgetting (or ignoring) the fact that a lot of teams had to play nearly every day for six months to make a world series possible. The pundits sneer at sports on a day-to-day basis. Only when it becomes a spectacle do they grab it and skim the cream.

This game, if you know anything at all about it, is worthy of standing on its own feet without any interpretation from dilettantes. It can be written straight as legitimate hard news, and doesn't have to be angled. Every year a great many foolish features are written around series time—sidebar cutie-pie stuff about umpires' wives and baseball players' families—with the omigod approach expressing surprise that umpires should have wives and athletes should have families. You couldn't wedge the sappy stuff into the paper with a fire iron at any other time of the year.

Game Under Fire
It is fashionable to sneer at sportswriters as sloppy writers of overblown prose, but I don't think I ever saw a decent column containing a sports angle written by a man with no background of sports pages. Same way I can't recall much of a whooper-dooer in a feature piece by some sophisticated city-sider who lacked a firm background of sports.

There is absolutely nothing to be done to the baseball we have known for all these years that can improve it as a grasper of mass imagination. There is nothing to be taken away or added that will give it more zing. There are things that can be taken away though, which will damage it in the form we know it.

Working via Commissioner Ford Frick, the TV people are beginning to snipe at it. I notice that the players in this past series were forbidden to argue with umpires. They were forbidden to try to rattle each other by stepping out of the batter's box or by stepping off the rubber on the pitching mound. They were supposed to mind their language, so's not to shock any TV watchers. These amendments to behavior supposedly save both TV time and delicate sensibilities among the beer drinkers and razor-blade users.

Baseball was here considerably before television, and will probably outlast it. I see no reason to start trimming up the general

One-Day President Of Argentina Dies

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Retired Gen. Arturo Rawson, who served as president of Argentina for one day after leading the 1943 army overthrow of President Ramon S. Castillo, died here yesterday. The cause of his death was not announced.

Rawson, 66, was the son of a famous Argentine military family. He assumed the presidency after leading the June, 1943, revolt by Army officers dissatisfied with the government's policy of neutrality toward the Axis powers. The rebels wanted an immediate diplomatic break with the Axis.

Rawson resigned the next day and was succeeded by Gen. Pedro P. Ramirez, who gave Juan Peron his first important government post and a boost toward the presidency he now holds.

December Draft Call Is 47,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army today issued a draft call for 47,000 men in December.

This would bring to 1,154,430 the total draft since inductions were resumed in September, 1950.

The December call is the same as for October and November.

The Defense Department asked Selective Service to deliver the December quota during the first two weeks of the month in order to allow a maximum number of servicemen to take advantage of Christmas leave.

Neil Wight, 70, Dies In Hospital, Funeral Monday

Neil McGinnis Wight of 1505 N. 20th St., passed away at 8 a. m., today in St. Francis Hospital where he had been a patient for the past two weeks. He was 70.

A retired foreman of the Campbell Wyant Cannon Foundry of Muskegon, he was born Oct. 24, 1881 in Argyle county, Scotland. He lived in Muskegon for 35 years before coming to this community two years ago.

Surviving him are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Edward (Constance) Rublein, both of Escanaba; one son, Neil Richard Wight of Muskegon; and two grandchildren.

He was a member of the parish of St. Stephen's Church and of the Masonic Blue Lodge of Muskegon.

The body will lie in state beginning Sunday afternoon at the Anderson Funeral Home where services will be held Monday at 2 p. m., the Rev. Joseph Dickson officiating.

Burial will be in Gardens of Rest.

State Polio Total For 1952 Now 2,760

Michigan has had 2,760 cases of polio thus far this year, a report received by the Delta-Menominee health department reveals.

The Michigan report lists 252 new cases reported for the week ending Oct. 3 and notes a gradual decrease in number of new cases. The figure for the week ending Oct. 3 is only 48 less than the total for the peak week six weeks before and nearly three times the 1948 figure for the same week.

The Michigan department of health points out that only four times during the past 25 years has the peak week occurred for the whole nation during the third week of September or later.

In 1951, there were 1,138 cases as of Oct. 3 and in 1949 there were 2,357 cases at that time.

The U. S. polioymyelitis foundation reports indicate that for the week ending Sept. 26, there were 3,538 new cases of polio reported. This represented a 16 per cent decline over the previous week and was cited as the beginning of the decline in the nation's list of weekly reported cases.

In Upper Michigan, for the week ending Oct. 3, 10 new cases were reported, bringing the U. P. total at that time to 94. Of those, five of the new cases were from Delta County, bringing the total then to 44. Delta County's last new polio case report came in Oct. 1, increasing the total this year from Delta county to 47.

Brother And Sister Die In Home Fire In Detroit Suburb

DETROIT (AP)—A teen-aged brother and sister burned to death when flames flashed through their two-story frame house in suburban Sumpter township.

Dorothy Amelia Mayzes, 17, and John Mayzes Jr., 15, died when the blaze believed caused by a faulty oil burner, trapped them in an upstairs bedroom.

Because of Dorothy's warning, an older brother saved himself by jumping 15 feet from a second-floor window.

At the time of the blaze, the victims' mother, Mrs. Dorothy Mayzes, 38, was working on the night shift at the Kaiser-Frazier factory at Willow Run. Their father, John Sr., is in Beyer Hospital in Ypsilanti with pneumonia.

Samuel Mayzes, 18, the surviving brother, said Dorothy was awakened by the flames about midnight while sleeping on a downstairs couch, and ran upstairs to waken her brothers.

The stair was blocked by fire, so Samuel smashed an upstairs window and tried to get his sister to jump out, but she hung back.

He said he tried to get her to leap, but she screamed, "I can't, I'm too afraid."

Fishermen Increase

LANSING (AP)—Sales of fishing licenses neared the $2,000,000 mark and were running ahead of last year on Sept. 1, the Conservation Department reported today. The 13 per cent increase in sales of annual non-resident licenses was the largest rise with sales totaling 138,000.

Eisenhower Will Reveal Finances

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower's press secretary said today the general is willing to let "anyone who has a real interest" take a look at his financial report.

James C. Hagerty told reporters: "The general has not got a complete report yet. If anyone has any real interest they, of course, can take a look."

Eisenhower's campaign manager, Gov. Sherman Adams of Massachusetts, was asked if this meant reporters would be able to see these financial statements.

"Anyone in the world," Adams said.

These statements followed published reports that Eisenhower did not intend at this time to make any public announcements about his finances as did his Democratic opponent, Adlai Stevenson.

The statement was given to reporters as they rushed from the Eisenhower special train to follow the general to his first Arizona speech.

At Phoenix, Eisenhower said he will make the report on his financial status public before the election.

Eisenhower added: "It is virtually all a matter of public record any way."

Polio Epidemic, Past Peak, Ranks As Worst In Nation's History

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis says this year's polio epidemic, which has passed its peak, now stands as the nation's worst on record.

With 3,227 new cases reported in the week ended Oct. 4, the foundation said last night, the total for 1952 numbers 42,372 cases—339 more than reported in all of 1949, the worst previous year.

But last week's new case total, the foundation said, represents a 9 per cent drop from the previous week—the second decline noted.

Boy Sets Fires

LANSING (AP)—Sheriff's officers said today a 12-year-old boy admitted last night that he had set a dozen fires in the Holt area of Ingham County in the past year. The latest fire Tuesday night caused $6,000 damage at a farm house near Holt.

ocratic opponent, Adlai Stevenson.

"I have no ghostly spokesman," Eisenhower quipped, "but when I have something to say to the American people I say it myself."

Charges Nonsense

Then he said he didn't have time to "take notes of the innumerable irresponsible things that a frightened administration and opposition are trying to say."

And he added: "I know that we have been called a party of special privilege but I tell you, my friends, that all the special privileges that are dangerous in this country, the most dangerous is the special privilege of big government."

He said the Democrats had issued "dire warnings" that a Republican administration would reduce, "if not totally destroy," the federal social security program.

"Such talk is not only false," he said, "it is not only nonsense, it is downright sinister. The only refuge of the desperately fearful administration in Washington is to deal in false charges."

Then he went on to attack socialized medicine while saying adequate medical care must be "made accessible and brought within the means of all our people."

He said: "Our doctors will be among the first to admit that—at present—too many of our people live too far from adequate medical aid; that too many of our people find the cost of adequate medical care too heavy."

"Federal compulsion, with our health supervised under a Washington stethoscope, is not American and it is not the answer."

"The answer is to build on the system of voluntary non-profit health insurance plans which our people have already developed at an amazing rate."

"Much remains to be done to perfect these plans. . . . But to destroy all this, by piling government medicine on top, would be disastrous."

Eisenhower then said neither the existing private health insurance plans nor "the administration's proposal for national socialized medicine covers all the people. Neither provides adequate protection."

Road To Disaster

"We all know in our bones that it is dangerous to talk tough," he declared. "The new Republican policy—and I am sorry to say this—is to talk tough while we simultaneously weaken our defenses and alliances."

"That just doesn't make sense to me. That is a sure road to disaster."

He previously had criticized Eisenhower's assertion the United States would "never rest" until the people of the satellite countries were freed. Stevenson said this aroused speculation that some "reckless action" might be taken, but Eisenhower later said he was speaking only of peaceful means, not war.

Stevenson has contended that Eisenhower's call for a 20 billion dollar budget cut would mean a slash in defense funds.

Sails Into Ike

Accusing the Republicans of trying to scrap the bi-partisan foreign policy, he sailed into Eisenhower on this point.

"What the campaign has clearly brought out is that the Old Guard of the Republican party wants to scrap that bi-partisan foreign policy—and that their candidate with the new look, the General of the army, has either forsaken his own great past or become the policy partner of Sen. Taft and some gentlemen of similarly eccentric views about our world," the Democratic nominee declared.

"Senator Taft and the Old Guard, of course, have fought our bi-partisan foreign policy right along. They have said that it costs too much, forgetting that however expensive peace may be, it will cost as nothing compared to a new world war."

Paul Robeson Barred From Making Speech At Ann Arbor Temple

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Circuit Judge James R. Breakey, Jr., today rejected the Progressive Party's demand for use of the Masonic Temple Oct. 19 for a party rally at which singer Paul Robeson was to make a speech.

Judge Breakey refused to grant the Progressive party an injunction against an order of the Temple board of control which banned rental of the hall.

The court held that there was no evidence to support the party's contention that it would suffer irreparable damage by the cancellation.

Mrs. Xenia Meader, chairman of the Party's Washtenaw County organization, said the group would try to find another place for its meeting.

The Washtenaw County Council of Veterans protested Robeson's appearance. The singer has been linked with left wing groups.

Korea Truce Recess Ominous Sign, Says Progressive Nominee

NEW YORK (AP)—Vincent Hallinan, Progressive party candidate for president, says the indefinite recess of Korean truce negotiations "is an ominous sign."

At a rally last night sponsored by the American Labor party, Hallinan said that President Truman should order the truce negotiators to resume talks with the Korean Reds and agree to a cease-fire.

"You are supposed to be a student of history, Mr. Truman," Hallinan said. "Did you ever hear of a war being fought over the issue of prisoners of war? Order a cease-fire and you can spend the rest of your life talking."

The American Labor party is the New York State arm of the Progressive party.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Great Lakes fleet, still trying to make up the tonnage it lost during the steel strike, hauled 98,882,437 net tons of iron ore, coal and grain the first nine months this year, the Lake Carriers Association reported today.

This compares with 120,828,758 tons at the corresponding time last year.

Birth Control Pills Condemned, Praised By Church Leaders

By FRANK CAREY AP Science Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Boston doctor's report of successful use of birth control pills in humans has elicited varying reactions from prominent clergymen of the Roman Catholic and Methodist churches.

Dr. Benjamin Sieve reported in the technical journal "Science" yesterday that 298 married couples had experienced complete lack of fertility during periods ranging from three to 30 months while taking the pills at breakfast, lunch and dinner—and that some are still taking them.

Not Permanent

But the Boston researcher emphasized that the drug—previously used to control bleeding—does not produce permanent sterility. He said 220 of the women have had a baby or have become pregnant after they and their husbands quit taking the pills.

The Rev. Francis J. Connell, a Redemptorist priest and dean of sacred theology at the Catholic University of America, was asked to comment on the report. He declared any use of such pills with the "direct intent of preventing conception would be a violation of the Divine Law as it affects birth, according to Catholic interpretation of God's law."

"This is because a substance taken orally with the direct intent to prevent birth in no way differs from any other means of unnatural contraception," he said.

Good Idea, Says Bishop

Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, bishop of the Washington, D.C., area of the Methodist church, also asked to comment, said:

"It is in accord with the moral law to plan properly for the coming of children. This discovery may enable mothers to space their children with due regard for health, education and service to society. The discovery is to be commended, not condemned."

Dr. Sieve, while reporting preliminary success, stressed that "much more clinical data must be accumulated before the general use of this anti-fertility factor is warranted."

Declaring the substance "promises safe and controllable fertility," he said it "can be taken indefinitely without toxic harmful effects or permanent inhibition of fertility."

The pills must be taken for 10 consecutive days before their anti-fertility action becomes effective. They must be taken continuously thereafter to assure lack of fertility. Dr. Sieve added: "fertility can be restored merely by omitting the drug for a 48-hour period."

Body Chemical Upset

The drug is called "phosphorylated hesperidin."

Dr. Sieve said other researchers had discovered that the drug showed an anti-fertility action when administered to laboratory animals. He said he confirmed such animal studies and then undertook the tests with humans.

He said the substance is believed to act as an anti-fertility factor by interfering with the action of a body chemical called "hyaluronidase" which in turn is believed to aid in the impregnation of the female egg by the male sperm.

The scientist reported that all 298 couples had had at least one child before undergoing the pill treatment, but that two of the couples had shown an apparent sterility for some time prior to the test. And yet, he said, the women in both those couples were among the first to become pregnant after stopping the pill-taking.

This suggests, he said, that the chemical may have the power of promoting fertility in persons deficient in that line—while at the same time inhibiting it in normally-fertile people. But he said further study would be needed to confirm this idea.

Father Connell said the Roman Catholic Church condemns only (1) complete sexual abstinence or (2) the "rhythm method" of controlling birth—the rhythm method being based, he said, on a "natural" cycle of non-fertility in the female each month.

The injured girl was reported in "satisfactory" condition in St. Francis Hospital this morning.

Delta Births Total 79 During September

A total of 79 births for Delta County residents was recorded for the month of September by the Delta-Menominee Health department. The figure is six above the September birth list for 1951.

The September birth list shows 8 babies born to Gladstone couples, 36 to Escanaba and 35 to rural residents. One set of twins was born to an Escanaba couple.

Births here for non-residents totaled seven in September.

On the other side of the ledger, Delta County recorded 29 resident deaths during September. Five were from Gladstone, 13 from Escanaba and 11 from rural areas in the county.

Hydrogen fusion requires a temperature of 20,000,000 degrees Centigrade or more. Could puny man create such an inferno? The answer came on July 16, 1945, with the world's first atomic bomb blast. Scientists estimated its heat at 50,000,000 degrees. An H-bomb trigger had been found.

To start the A-bomb's fission process there had been no need for such incredible heat conditions. Scientists had discovered that a given amount of uranium—called a "critical mass"—will explode automatically through a process resembling spontaneous combustion. In the A-bomb this was done by bringing together two given amounts of uranium to form a "critical mass."

Because the amount of uranium required for the fission process is fixed, the A-bomb's destructive potential is limited. In theory, however, there is almost no limit to the amount of hydrogen the uranium trigger could be made to ignite. As suggested above, the same trigger could be used as easily in a small H-bomb as in one with "powers beyond the dreams of scientific fiction."

Damascus Steel Inferior Today

WASHINGTON — Best of its day, steel of the famed Damascus blade that flashed in the sun of Bible lands against the Crusaders of medieval times nevertheless is greatly excelled by the product of modern steelmakers.

The Damascus alloy was of iron and carbon, laboriously smelted and as varying in properties as the natural ore, says the National Geographic Society. Modern steel is amalgamated with metals of which the ancients never dreamed, is manufactured in unvarying quality, and surpasses the Damascus product in strength, pliability, and willingness to stay sharp.

Saracens wielding swords of Damascus contested the road to Jerusalem during the Crusades. European knights took the Holy City by siege and assault in 1099, by treaty in 1229. British General Allenby captured it in the first World War, in an age when the rifle had replaced the sword.

Steel From India

The steel of which the early Damascus blades were made — the wootz of Hyderabad, called ordaniqu by Marco Polo — came from India by dhow and camel caravan to Damascus and other Middle Eastern cities. There it was hand-wrought into graceful weapons by the armorers of the teeming bazaars.

Thin strips of Indian steel and baser iron were bound together and fused by heating and pounding. Other strips were added; the process was repeated, patiently and without attention to the hour glass, until at last the craftsman was satisfied. Only then did he etch design into the curious watered pattern of the steel, affix the delicately ornamented handle and grind the edge to razor keenness.

An armorer's parchment of instructions unearthed in the 19th century at Tyre indicates there may have been girded performance tests of swords turned out for rulers and high officers. The blade, said the parchment, should be tried against a slave bound to a block, the final criterion being its ability to lop off the head of the unfortunate at one stroke without incurring a nick.

Oldest Inhabited City
Damascus, fifty miles from Beirut and the capital of independent Syria, was founded no man knows when and may be the oldest city of earth still inhabited. Always those who lived there have needed good weapons. Its streets have echoed to the conquering tread of Israelites, Assyrians, Macedonians, Egyptians, Romans, Omids, Carthaginians, Seljuks, the Crusaders, Mongolians, Ottomans, and the French.

One of the armoring industry's chief patrons was the Roman Emperor Diocletian (A. D. 245-313). The craft perished in 1401, when Tamerlane carried off the smiths. Modern successors of those ancient artisans are gold and silversmiths, and craftsmen who produce inlays of wood, brass and copper.

Rapid River

RAPID RIVER — Mrs. Hilma Carlson celebrated her birthday anniversary recently by entertaining a few friends at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Axel Smiths came from Iron Mountain, Mrs. Smiths bringing along a beautifully iced birthday cake. Others attending were Mrs. John Skoglund of Manistique, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson, Mrs. Maria Lindberg of Masonville, Mrs. Stone Anderson, Ella Johnson and Mrs. Beuhler. The guest of honor received many gifts in remembrance of the day. Mrs. Skoglund returned to her home Friday and Mr. and Mrs. Smiths returned to Iron Mountain Monday.

Briefs
Mrs. Louie Thibault and granddaughter Mary Miller and Mrs. Ed O'Leary and children returned Monday from Ypsilanti where they spent several days visiting Mrs. C. J. Eberts. Mrs. Eberts recently submitted to surgery and is making satisfactory progress toward recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Caswell and children returned Sunday night from a vacation spent touring Canada and visiting in the Lower Peninsula.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ellingson have moved to the C. E. Hamilton farm. Mr. Hamilton will spend several weeks at the Sandy Short home before going to Marinette to spend the winter with the Glen Hamilton family.

Nels Larson submitted to a leg amputation Tuesday at St. Francis Hospital. Claude Larson of Jackson, Mrs. Laurel Gibbs and children and Mr. and Mrs. Wally Newlin and children of Wayne are all at the Larson home.

Pickpocket Works At Religious Ceremonies

ROME (AP) — An Italian woman told police she picked the pockets of 35 religious pilgrims in one morning. She is now serving a jail term.

She was arrested in Northern Italy when a policeman saw her put in her provision bag a wallet she had stolen in a sanctuary. They searched her bag and found another 34 wallets. She confessed she had picked them up during the morning religious ceremonies.

Distance makes the Heart grow Fonder

You'll discover this about a Buick:
The more you drive it, the more you like it;
the longer your trip, the louder your praise.
That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why.

You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going.

You can romp up high hills, cruise straightaways, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving—and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you.

How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability in a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft seats for one thing—and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.

There's Dynaflo Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.

There's a hooftful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.

There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.

There's all this and more—much more—that of Miss Londo's nephew and spending the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Londo Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tryan of Rockford, Ill., spent the weekend with relatives and friends at South Ford River.

A-3c and Mrs. Norval LaLonde visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. R. Peterson at Marquette. Mrs. Peterson is a sister of Airman LaLonde.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Londo Sr. have returned from Norway where they attended the wedding of Mr. Londo's nephews.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson were in Stephenson on business Saturday.

Miss Blanche Johnson, a student at St. Anthony's School of Nursing, Rockford, Ill., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Porath and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Borden and family attended a family reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Detjen at Wilson Sunday.

Miss Rose Dittich, a student at Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, spent the weekend with her mother.

Farwell Party

A farwell party was given for A-3c Norval LaLonde Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Blake. Dancing and singing were diversions and a lunch was served by Mrs. Blake. Attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Guenette, Mr. and Mrs. William Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Drossard and children of Rapid River, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peacock and daughter, Karen, Escanaba, and Mrs. Norval LaLonde. Airman LaLonde has left for Camp Stoneman, Calif., and will be assigned to service in Alaska.

Escanaba Deanery Meeting Saturday At Schaffer Church

A general meeting of the Escanaba Deanery, Marquette Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, will be held at Sacred Heart Church in Schaffer Saturday, Oct. 11, beginning at 2 p. m.

A board meeting will precede the general meeting. It is scheduled for 1:10 p. m.

Sister M. Cornelius, principal of St. Joseph's High School in Escanaba, will be the speaker and her topic will be "The New Curriculum in Catholic Elementary Schools."

Members of the Deanery parish units are urged to make every effort to attend the meeting.

Tomatoes May Be The Answer, Mrs. Nettie Seidl Finds

Mrs. Nettie Seidl, 609 N. 18th St., found one method of removing lime deposit from utensils quite by accident yesterday. Ordinary kitchen cleansers failed to remove the deposit from a kettle Mrs. Seidl had used to sterilize bottles for her young grandchild who was at her home a few weeks ago.

Yesterday, deciding that the kettle was going to remain the way it was, she used it to make soup of chicken stock to which she added fresh tomatoes among other vegetables.

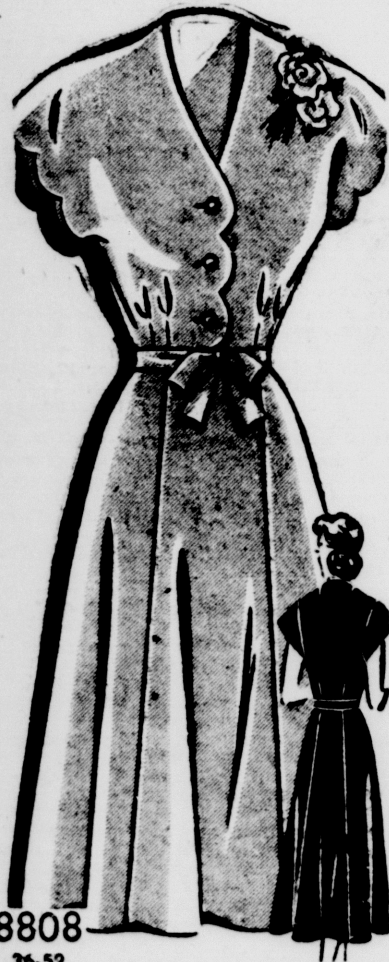

When she started washing the kettle the lime deposit which had taken on the tomato color suddenly came free from the kettle.

Mrs. Seidl thinks that the acid from the tomatoes did it but she doesn't know for sure. Anyway the kettle looks like new again.

And here is a tested method which Mrs. Frank Kidd has used with success. Simply fill your kettle with water, add two or three tablespoons of alum, and let it soak three days. This will remove the deposit, no matter how thick it is.

Try either one or both.

A half teaspoon of celery seed is good added to a cup of French dressing.

Helping Around Home Is A Daughter's Job

By Elizabeth B. Hurlock, Ph.D.
Many people, both men and women, feel that the whole job of running the home should be assumed by the wife and mother. They don't lift a hand to help. That is the problem facing the girl who wrote:

(Q) "I'm 15 and have a sister who is 18. Our mother works hard all day at home and I help her as much as I can. My sister works during the day, and after supper she sits down and reads a movie magazine. There are six of us and my mother isn't well. Whenever I tell my sister she should help, she puts up an argument. To avoid trouble, I wind up doing everything. Don't you think my sister should help out?"

(A) Of course—and so should all the other members of your family. Even if your mother were in the pink of health, it would be too much for her to try to do everything alone.

Not being well, she needs help even more than ever—from the whole family. I can't understand how your sister could be so heartless as to sit down and read a magazine while your mother worked.

Obviously your sister feels she is doing her share when she contributes financially to the home out of her earnings. But with such a large family and your mother in poor health, her help shouldn't stop there.

Call your family together, without your mother, and tell them how things are. Impress on them the fact that your mother isn't well and can't do such hard work. Then ask everyone, including your father, what he or she wants to do around the house.

If they balk and try to argue, tell them you will call in the family doctor to explain why your mother should be relieved of some of the work. Tell them that you want to help your mother in any way you can but that you aren't willing to carry their loads. Stress the fact that homemaking is a cooperative affair and that those who won't work won't eat or have clean clothes.

Elizabeth Hurlock is one of the nation's great psychologists, and she will gladly help you with personal problems.

Story Hour At Library Saturday

A singing goose and a lonely group of panda bears will be the feature of Story Hour at Carnegie Public Library Saturday at 10 a. m. in the Children's Room. Mrs. Kenneth G. Jensen, the children's librarian, will tell the tale of "Sing, Sang, Sung and Willie" and the story of "Petunia and the Song." Twenty-seven children attended last week.

NEW YORK —(NEA)—Every woman has at least one "dressy" dress in her wardrobe.

If she lives in a small town or even a medium-sized one, it will serve a different purpose than it would in a big city. She will wear it for bridge, for tea, for small evenings, for any informal gathering requiring a somewhat dressy turnout.

In the city, the same general type dress goes to matinees, to late-afternoon parties, to small and informal dinners and even, at times, to the theater in the evening.

But small town or big city, it's a dress a woman must have if she leads even a fairly active social life.

A sophisticated dress for city life (left) is this feminine design, softly draped and folded, done in an organdy taffeta. Gentle drapery rounds out the bosom and shoulders, deals gracefully with the neckline.

Equally handsome but less extreme (right) is this dress in shining rayon satin. Again, the soft drapery appears in the neckline and brief sleeves, is suggested in the unusual cluster effect achieved in the very full skirt. Waistline is small and neat.

Garden

Home Economics Meeting
GARDEN — Members of the Kate's Bay Home Economics club met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Alpha Thibault. Following routine business games were played until the serving of lunch. Mrs. George Boudreau Jr. was presented with the guest award and also showered with many pink and blue gifts. Plans were made to entertain the Homemakers club of Garden at a Halloween party.

Briefs
Mrs. George Farley visited Wednesday at the St. Francis Hospital, where her daughter, Mrs. Robert Lekault of Escanaba, submitted to surgery the same morning.

Mrs. Anna Gray left Friday for Chicago to visit her daughter, Mrs. James Carey.

Social Situations

A man asks your son a question and he answers with a "Yes" or "No".

WRONG: Interrupt to tell him he should say "Yes Sir" or "No Sir."

RIGHT: Wait until you are alone with him and then remind him that he should say "Yes Sir" and "No Sir," instead of embarrassing him in front of others.

For a delightful luncheon salad, hollow out tomatoes and fill with a mixture of cooked kidney beans, diced celery, pickle relish, and enough mayonnaise to moisten.

Committees For Year Are Named By B. & P. W. Club

Bean sprouts taste good served on a bed of crisp greens. If you use the canned variety you need only to drain and chill them. If you use the fresh bean sprout, rinse them well, plunge them into boiling water for a minute, then drain and chill. Serve a well-seasoned dressing with the bean-sprout salad.

Grandmother's Day Sunday, Oct. 12; No Rocking Chairs

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's editor

Gangway, here comes grandma! She may be piloting her own plane or doing the smoothest rumba on the floor. She may be a corporation president or a candidate for public office.

She's thrown away her traditional props, the rocking chair and knitting, and is enjoying life.

With Grandmother's Day coming up Sunday, Oct. 12, various people are busy making lists of the 10 most glamorous, most successful, most influential most athletic, most astonishing and most daring grandmas.

Youth Prolonged

Grandma is enjoying a golden era. The best brains of science have come up with new ways of prolonging youth and beauty; society has provided new outlets for her energies in politics and business; she has lived long enough to learn that life can be fun at any age, but more fun after the uncertainties and struggles of early youth are past.

Two famous grandmas on every list are those hardy charmers, Gloria Swanson and Marlene Dietrich.

La Swanson is so busy making TV films and running a wholesale dress business she has no time to count birthdays, but her well-publicized allure carries a higher voltage than ever, and her figure still is well within the dimensions of the bathing beauty.

Mistaken for Daughter

La Dietrich can be mistaken for her daughter at 10 paces, and her famous legs cause as much excitement as ever. Recently a famous dress designer called her the most imitated woman—the one most women would like to look like, the one who wears clothes best and sets the mode for others to follow.

The glamorous Gloria says women are getting younger all the time—and she's on hand to prove it. She claims she meets grandmothers every day who look and act as young and sleek and vital as she.

It's because they have learned not to watch the calendar, she says, and have found that the world is full of a number of things that are lots of fun if you take the trouble to look for them.

Son Born To The Joseph S. Dicksons

A son, John Trew II, was born to the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph S. Dickson, 515 3rd Ave. S., at 6 a. m., today at St. Francis hospital. The baby's weight at birth was 6 pounds and 8 ounces. John Trew has one brother, Robert Emery, and two sisters, Dianne Lee and Kathryn Anne. His father is rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church of Escanaba.

Social-Club

Bake Sale Saturday
Daughters of Job will have a bake sale at Goodman's Drug Store Saturday at 10 a. m.

Club Fish Fry
Another Friday evening fish fry will be held this evening at the Escanaba Golf and Country Club. Club members and their guests are invited.

When teen-agers entertain at a porch party they'll like a fruit juice beverage and doughnuts topped with a chocolate frosting.

Women To Hear Former Russian

Mrs. Carl Jeske, of Peshtigo, Wis., a native of Russia, will present an informal talk, "My Life in Russia," at a regular meeting of the Manistique Women's Club next Tuesday afternoon.

Manistique public school teachers will be guests of the club at the session.

Mrs. Jeske lived in Russia until the German invasion early in 1940. During that time she served as an interpreter for Germans. When the Soviet army reoccupied the Ukraine her safety was so endangered that she fled to Germany where she lived in a DP camp. In 1947 she came to the United States as a war bride. At the present time she and her husband, a former American soldier who had been stationed in Germany, reside on a farm near Peshtigo.

Mrs. Jeske is an attractive young woman who speaks easily and has an excellent command of the English language.

The meeting program also will include vocal selections by Douglas Harding, public school music instructor.

Hostesses for the session will be Mrs. Carl Makel, chairman; Mrs. Peter Babielis, Mrs. C. W. Bretz, Mrs. Sidney Bouwer, Mrs. Omer Dybek, Mrs. Russel Fagan, Mrs. Leon Heinz, Mrs. William Howe, Mrs. E. T. King and Mrs. Donald MacLean.

Briefly Told

Rummage Sale—Many winter garments will be available tomorrow at a rummage sale sponsored by the Presbyterian Women's Association, it is announced. The sale is being held at the Quick Electric Store.

Special Meeting—A special meeting of Presbyterian elders will be held at the church immediately following worship service Sunday morning, it is announced by the Rev. Paul Sobel, pastor. Elders will make preliminary plans for observance of men's Sunday on Oct. 19.

Auditing Committee—The auditing committee of the Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors will meet at 2 p. m. Saturday at the Court House to audit bills against the county. Firms and individuals having charges against the county are requested to present their bills to the county clerk prior to the meeting. Members of the committee are Agner Dehlin, of Hiawatha township; Walter Burns, of Manistique, and William Poppur, of Cooks.

Lecture Series—The first of six lectures on "Campaign Issues in an Election Year," scheduled for 7:30 tonight at Manistique high school, will conclude promptly at 8:30 to permit those enrolled to attend the Emeralds-Sault reserve game at the stadium, it was announced yesterday by A. F. Hall, public school superintendent. The opening lecture will be given by Prof. Joseph E. Kallenbach on the subject, "The Labor and Civil Rights Issues."

Justices Of Peace Sit As Citizens On Election Boards

LANSING (AP)—The attorney general's department held informally that justices of the peace may serve on township election boards "as individuals" but not as representatives of the township board.

Deputy Attorney General Arthur T. Iverson said that the legislature in 1945 had repealed a law making the justice of the peace a member of the township board of election inspectors.

"Those who are still serving, or who might be appointed in the future," Iverson said, "could be considered as serving as ordinary citizens."

He said advice to this effect would be sent to all county prosecuting attorneys soon for their guidance.

The opinion, Iverson said, will indicate that justices of the peace now are disqualified for holding administrative posts which were assigned to them by law, but that they may serve as individuals unless barred by some other incompatibility, such as the constitutional provision against holding two legally conflicting offices.

Iverson was continuing to answer harassed township attorneys that previous acts of township boards were legal, even though the boards had contained two or more justices of the peace.

He said the wording of the Supreme Court's decision gave support to that advice. The court he said pointed out that justices of the peace had been "de facto" board members, if not "de jure."

Arraignments In Any County Of Judicial District Held Legal

The legality of arraigning, accepting pleas and sentencing of criminal defendants in any county of a judicial circuit is upheld in a decision rendered this week by the Michigan Supreme Court, it is announced by William J. Sheahan, prosecuting attorney of Schoolcraft County.

The Supreme Court decision, a copy of which was received yesterday by the prosecuting attorney, involved a petition filed in August, 1950, by Benjamin A. Joslin, of Manistique township, who

Starters For Tonight's Game Are Announced

A tentative starting lineup for tonight's reserve game against the American Sault was announced yesterday by Coach Rudy Brandstrom.

The game is scheduled for 8:30 in the Hall stadium, and a special attraction between halves will be a clash between seventh and eighth grade elevens.

On defense Millard Edwards will replace Graphos, Martin Holmberg will go in as line backer for Phillion, James Ott will replace Harbick, and Herb Calhoun will be sent in for Lupton.

Others who may get into action are Bob Hastings, end; Harold Pawley, end; Bim Gero, quarterback; and Ken Dixon, a southpaw, who will be given a chance to show what he can do with his left arm and hand.

Smith To Conduct Evangel Services In Traverse City

The Rev. Edgar M. Smith, pastor of the First Methodist Church, left this morning for Traverse City where he will conduct evangelistic services beginning this evening and continuing through Friday, Oct. 17.

The Traverse City program is part of a state-wide evangelistic movement of the Methodist Church.

The Rev. Smith will return to Manistique Saturday, Oct. 1.

On Oct. 31 a week of evangelistic services will open at the local Methodist Church, with visiting pastors presenting evangelistic messages each evening.

Elks Present Bowling Prizes

Presentation of bowling prizes to winners in the final half of the 1952-53 season highlighted the program at the annual Elks fall bowling banquet Wednesday evening.

Prizes were distributed to team captains by E. H. LeBrasseur, bowling secretary, who prefaced the presentation with an explanation of rules governing this season's bowling.

The following awards were presented:

American League: First, Ethiopians; second and third, a tie, Michigan Dimension and Malloy Signs; fourth, Lumberjacks.

National League: First, Toolmakers; second, C-L Hardware; third and fourth, a tie, Tigers and Inland.

Special ABC awards were given to Ferd Gorsche and G. S. Johnson for showing the greatest average improvement during last season's bowling and to Fred H. Hahne, for rolling the season's highest game.

Other J. Schuster officiated as toastmaster at the session.

Fred H. Hahne, exalted ruler, urged greater lodge attendance at regular meetings in a brief message and John Raffay announced an opening Elks dance on Saturday evening, Oct. 25.

Two special bowling matches concluded the annual event, which was attended by one of the largest groups in several years. William Hentschell was general chairman of the banquet.

LaCrosse Girl Is Recent Bride Of Thomas E. Kennedy

In a candlelight ceremony Sept. 20, Miss Jeanette Elaine Gilles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilles, of LaCrosse, Wis., became the bride of Thomas E. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kennedy, of Manistique.

The Rev. Winslow Wilson of the Ashbury Methodist Church of LaCrosse read the marriage vows before an altar banked with white flowers.

The bride chose a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a high neck line, sleeves ending in points at the wrist, and full train. Her matching Juliet cap was touched with seed pearls which held the fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red and white rose buds.

Attending the couple were Miss Marcia Peterson, maid of honor, and Miss Eva Hartwig, of Chicago, and Miss Mary Lambrecht, of Dallas, Texas, bridesmaids. They wore gowns of lilac net over tulle and carried colonial bouquets of rubrum lilies and roses. Carol Ann Gillis, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired in a gown of yellow net over satin. Danny Pfennig, the bride's nephew, served as ring bearer.

Dean Johnson, of Cedar Falls, Ia., was best man, and Richard Gilles and Vernon Vradenberg were groomsmen. Robert Pfennig and Jack Begeman seated the guests.

Following the ceremony a reception for 250 guests was held. The couple left later on a wedding trip to Milwaukee.

Lakeside Team Leads In Grade Football League

Lakeside, with three wins and one tie, holds top spot in a public grade school touch football program.

Lincoln graders, with three victories and one loss, are closely crowding the Lakesiders for the upper berth.

The top is composed of four teams which began competitive play Sept. 16. All games are being played at Central field.

Three games remain before the windup of regular play. The games follow: Oct. 14—Lakeside vs. Lincoln; Oct. 15, Central vs. Lincoln; Oct. 16—Lakeside vs. Riverside.

On Oct. 21, 22 and 23 a touch football tournament is scheduled. Teams will draw for opponents and there will be two elimination games.

The grade grid program is under the direction of Lowell Cooper and John Tremain, Central teachers, assisted by two eighth graders, Gary Nelson and Carl Anderson.

After the business meeting games were played and prizes were given to Mrs. Jesse Friedgens, Mrs. Adeline Bouchard and Mrs. Donald Hastings.

Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Pink and Blue Shower
Mrs. Leroy Johnson, of Berkley, was honored at a pink and blue shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Melita Patz, 121 E. Elk St., with Mrs. William LaFreniere and daughters as assisting hostesses.

During the evening cards were played and prizes were given to Mrs. George Patrick and Mrs. Sig Anderson in 500; Mrs. Ingrid Johnson and Mrs. James Gouin in canasta; and Mrs. Helga Berglund and Mrs. Gertrude Dorman in buncos. Mrs. George Patrick was also given the special award.

Lunch was served later.

Mrs. Johnson is the former June LaFreniere.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Calib Johnson and Mrs. Henry Turan, of Isabella.

Sold Car Without Having Title, Pays $53.75 Fine, Costs

Selling an automobile without having title to it cost Earl Nelson a fine of $50 and costs of $3.75 in Manistique justice court yesterday.

Nelson, who pleaded guilty at his arraignment before Justice Victor P. Deemer, was arrested Tuesday on a charge that he sold a car to Roger Swingle when the title was vested in Allen F. Demers.

Politics Talk Slated Tonight

Professor Joseph E. Kallenbach of the University of Michigan tonight opens the U-M extension lecture series here on "Campaign Issues in an Election Year."

The lecture-discussion will be held in Manistique High School, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Topic for this first lecture is "Labor and Civil Rights Issues."

Professor Kallenbach previously taught political science at the University of Missouri and Iowa State University. He is an associate professor at the University of Michigan, where he received his Ph. D. in 1939.

Subsequent lectures will be given on Oct. 15, 24 and 31 and Nov. 7 and 14.

The purpose of the series is to give voters a knowledge of the background and structure of major state and national issues which are stressed in current campaigns.

Mrs. Wilson Speaks At Hiawatha PTA Meeting Wednesday

Mrs. L. E. Wilson was guest speaker at a regular meeting of the Hiawatha PTA Wednesday evening, discussing various phases of PTA activity. She also conducted a question and answer session.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Leroy Oberg, PTA president.

Lunch was served at the conclusion of the business program, with Mrs. Minnie McGurk, Mrs. V. Auvinen and Mrs. G. Anderson in charge. The Halloween motif was utilized in table decorations.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 19 at the grange hall.

Investigation Booked For Alcohol Tax Unit

LINCOLN, Neb.—Rep. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) said last night that members of the tax-investigating King committee will go to Washington after the Nov. 4 election to probe the Treasury Department's Alcohol Tax Unit.

Curtis, a member of the committee, said he is not at liberty to say what might be revealed. "But I do believe it will be a series of matters that will command as much attention as the disclosures about income taxes," he commented in an address to the Southeast Nebraska County officials Association.

STATE OF MICHIGAN

The Circuit Court for the County of Delta, In Chancery.

Betty Jane Personette, Plaintiff, vs. Fred Personette, Defendant.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Delta in Chancery, at the City of Escanaba in said County, on the 24th day of September, 1952.

In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file that the Defendant Fred Personette is not a resident of the State of Michigan, resides in the City of Milwaukee, State of Wisconsin.

On motion of William J. Miller, Plaintiff's Attorney, it is ordered that the said Defendant, Fred Personette, cause his appearance to be entered herein within three months from the date of this order and in case of his appearance that he cause his answer to the Plaintiff's Bill of Complaint to be filed, and a copy thereof to be served on said Plaintiff's Attorney within fifteen days after service on him of a copy of said bill and notice of this order, and that in default thereof, said bill will be taken as confessed by the said non-resident Defendant.

AND It is Further Ordered, That within forty days the said Plaintiff cause a notice of this order to be published in the Escanaba Daily Press, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said County, and that such publication be continued therein at least once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that she cause a copy of this order to be personally served on said non-resident Defendant at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for appearance.

NICHOLAS P. CHAPEKIS, Circuit Court Commissioner, Delta County, Michigan.

Escanaba Will Face Iron Mountain Saturday

Honor Coach, Players At Pep Rally Tonight

A public pep rally at the Junior High School tonight at 8:15 will honor Coaches Joe Milokna and Burt Gustafson and the Eskymo football players on the eve of their Saturday clash with Iron Mountain.

The pep session will be staged at the Junior High auditorium. Grid fans will have an opportunity to meet the new Eskymo varsity coaches and the reserve mentors, Steve Baltic and Frank Mike-tinac. The 1952 Esky squad will be introduced.

Interest in the Escanaba-Iron Mountain game Saturday has reached a peak and a capacity crowd is anticipated for the opening kickoff at 2. An advance sale of tickets, good for both the Iron

CROSS COUNTRY
The annual Upper Peninsula high school cross country championship race will be staged between halves of the Iron Mountain-Escanaba game Saturday afternoon. Eleven teams in Class B and C-D-E will compete.

Mountain and Marinette home games, has been conducted this week. Ticket sellers report a brisk advance sale.

The Escanaba Senior High band, under the direction of Robert S. Meyer, will be on hand and Esky cheerleaders will lead in school yells.

Will Show Movie
Chairman of the program will be Paul Menard and welcome will be given by Mert Arntzen. Both are members of the student body. Mayor Robert LeMire and Ken L. Gunderman will be speakers. A movie of the Eskymo-Menominee Maroon game will be shown after the rally.

Coach Joe Milokna announced this morning that his team is ready to go against the highly rated Mountaineers. With one exception, all are in good physical shape. Out of action for the game will be Con Michael, right linebacker on defense.

Getting starting assignments will be Bill Peltier and Tom Gregoire at ends, Dick Hanson and John Peterson at tackles, Bob Monson and Paul Davidson at guards, John Trotter at center, Fred Boddy at quarterback, Dick Carlson and Charlie Bellefeuille at halfbacks and Dick Weycker at fullback.

Defensive Starters
Replacing Michael on defense will be Marshall Judson, Gregoire or Mike McDonough. Other front line defense men are George Peterson, Dick Peterson, John Jensen, George Bartley and Judd Yelland. Among other players likely to see action are Al Davidson, Gerald Nichol, Pat McDonough, Harold Martin and Bill LeMire.

The Eskymos will be seeking their second straight victory against a Dickinson county team. Last Saturday Escanaba rolled over the Kingsford Flivvers 54-0. Previously the team had lost to Sault Ste. Marie 7-6, tied Ironwood 0-0 and lost to Menominee 26-20.

Iron Mountain will bring an enviable record here tomorrow. Coach Omer Lajeunesse's Mountaineers lost to Menominee 32-14 last week after running up four straight victories over Ishpeming, Niagara, Stambaugh and Norway. The Mountaineers, with a heavy emphasis on power, have scored 112 points to 45 for all opponents.

Mountaineers Hurt
Injuries have taken a toll in the Mountaineer squad with all U. P. guard Al Sandona out with a knee injury and halfback Bob Ladwig sidelined with an ankle injury. Also on the doubtful list are Bruce Bianco, fullback, and Bob Pozza, quarterback and halfback.

Game officials will be Thor Reque and Ray Ranguette of Manistique and Norman Slough of Rapid River.

At 12 noon the Escanaba junior varsity will meet the Kingsford reserve team in a preliminary game at the Esky gridiron. In starting positions for the Esky jayvees will be Jim Finn and Jim Mongrain at ends, Jim Gerdeen and Dick Johnson at tackles, Jerry Boucher and Bob Ferguson at guards, Dave Setterling at center, Jim Beck at quarterback, Dan Sundman and Dave Judson at halfbacks and Don Dahlin at fullback. The team has won and lost in two starts to date.

Traveling Trojans Invade Crystal Falls On Saturday

Coach Tom St. Germain's St. Joe Trojans, who may well be the travelingest team in the Upper Peninsula this season, prepare for another road trip tomorrow.

The Trojans will play at Crystal Falls Saturday afternoon at 2. It's the fourth road game of the year for St. Joe. And the Trojans still have two more trips to make. Munising and Niagara are next on the list.

Victory Drive
They opened their drive by spearing St. Norbert of DePere 14-13, then measured Bark River 38-7 and last Saturday belted the Norway Vikings with a 20-0 shut-out.

At Crystal Falls St. Joe will be meeting a team which won its first game of the year last Saturday. The Trojans of Crystal Falls (same nickname as the Esky Trojans) had suffered losses to Bark River, Bessemer, Norway and Houghton before beating Lake Linden 34-6 last weekend.

Missing from the St. Joe lineup will be fullback John Martinec who is plagued with a knee injury.

No Monopoly For U. S. In Boxing
WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Boxing Association today observed that only four of the eight world champions are from the United States.

And it pointed out that the way things are going it isn't likely that the U. S. will improve its position. Among the big boys, this country is doing okay.

Heavyweight champ — Rocky Marciano. His No. 1 challenger—Jersey Joe Walcott, followed by Rex Layne and Ezzard Charles.

The top eight heavyweights listed by the NBA are from the U. S. Among the light heavies, Joey Maxim is the champ, with Archie Moore and Harry Matthews the logical contenders.

Again the eight top men are from the U. S.

But starting with the middleweights, and working down the weight scale, the situation changes rapidly.

Ray Robinson is the middleweight champion, but right below him is the man who once beat him and briefly held his title, Randy Turpin of England.

Kid Gavilan of Cuba is the welterweight king, Lauro Salas of Mexico rules the lightweights, Vic Towel of South Africa is champion of the bantamweights, and little Yoshio Shirai, Japan's first world boxing champion, tops the flyweights.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT
Akron, O.—Rocky Jones 170, Chester, Pa., outpointed Roland LaStarza, 190, New York, 10.

New York (Sunnyside Gardens)—Joey Klein, 148½, New York, outpointed Pat Manzi, 145, Syracuse, 8.

Milan, Italy—Ray Farnoch, Paris, France, knocked out Nello Barbadoro, Italy, 4, for European featherweight title.

Eddie Waitkus, first sacker for the Philadelphia Phils, played in 145 games last season and did not steal a single base.

Emeralds At Soo Tonight; Two Linesmen Are Injured

MANISTIQUE — Although two top linesmen will be out of the game because of injuries, Coach Dick Bonifas' Emeralds will invade the American Sault tonight determined to make it six straight victories.

Unable to play will be Bill Ekdahl who sustained a bruised back in the Munising game last Saturday and Francis Laurion who suffered a fractured nose in practice this week.

The absence of Ekdahl and Laurion leaves sizeable gaps in the Manistique line but Coach Bonifas believes he has them adequately plugged.

Busch Replacement
Ed Busch, a 185-pound sophomore, will replace Ekdahl at right tackle. Busch showed up well in the Munising game. The other tackle spot will be played by Bob Nelson. Both will have to play top football to outshine the plucky Ekdahl whose offensive and defensive line work this season has been phenomenal, particularly in the game here two weeks ago against Newberry.

In the absence of Laurion, a fine defensive and offensive end,

Jim Swartstrom will be assigned both offensive and defensive responsibility. Wayne Rice will play the other end position.

The Sault, which has a beefier forward wall than Manistique, is expected to offer the Emeralds about the most rugged competition of the season. Like Manistique the Sault has been beaten only once, and that defeat was administered by Ishpeming early in the season, the same team which handed the Emeralds their lone shelling last fall.

The Sault has recorded victories over Escanaba and Munising and tied Newberry.

On the basis of comparative records the two teams seem fairly evenly matched, Coach Bonifas said.

Battle Of Lines

"It looks like the game may be a battle between the forward walls," the coach stated. "If the Emerald line can perform like it has in previous games the Sault is in for trouble". The Manistique goal line has been uncrossed in the past four games, and so far this season opponents have succeeded in penetrating the Emerald wall for only 26 points.

The Emerald offensive was stalemated against Munising last week, and practice Monday night was cancelled to give the boys a chance to snap out of the condition.

The team left this noon for the Sault, about 25 players making the trip. Other tentative starters tonight are Orville Erickson and Warren LaBar at guards, Robert Corson at center, Warren Wilson at quarter, Ray Cummings and Bob McNamara in the halfback spots, and Earl Johnson at full.

Quinn Is Strong 'Stique Runner

MANISTIQUE — Jack Quinn, veteran MHS cross country runner, is expected to offer strong competition to harriers at the cross country meet between halves of the Escanaba-Iron Mountain football game in Escanaba Saturday afternoon.

Quinn, a veteran runner, finished among the first three during the past three years of competition and Coach Ted Corombos confidently expects that he will be among the first five at the Escanaba meet.

Local cross country candidates have been practicing since the start of school. The local aggregation, however, has been weakened by the loss of two other top performers.

Braves At Ishpeming In Night Grid Clash

GLADSTONE — Coach Don Pfothauer took his charges under the lights at the Central playground last night as the Braves wound up preparations for their battle against the Hematites at Ishpeming tonight.

It will be the first of two night games, the second scheduled to be held at Stephenson next Friday evening.

Throughout the week the local mentor has emphasized to 'his charges that they will have their hands full in keeping in the win column tonight for the Hematites are the only team to take the measure of Manistique this season.

In Bob Sharland, working from left half, Ishpeming has a speedster who can sweep the ends, while Bob Beerling performs well from the fullback spot. They also have two rangy ends adept at catching aerials.

Injuries continue to plague the Braves. Don Brewer, scrappy guard, is through for the season at the advice of his physician as is Dick Lamberg, regular center. Dick Ducheny, fullback, is still suffering from a bruised hip but good shape and ready for action. Joe Corbiel is apparently back in Tom Peterson, tackle has returned to the squad.

Ducheny may see some action at fullback while Jack Beach and Larry Feldt are certain to get in considerable time on defense. Barney Bratonia and Bob Burton are also expected to get into action tonight.

The team left for Ishpeming about 3:30 this afternoon. A bus load of students will leave later to form a cheering section for the Braves.

Red Wings Get Off To Winning Start In NHL

By HARRY STAPLER

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings — like a king looking for more thrones to squat on — are off to an exploding start in the National Hockey League.

The Wings acted like a bunch confident of winning their fifth straight NHL championship last night.

They toyed with the New York Rangers and scored a 5-3 victory in what might have been a 10-0 walkaway.

Michigan, Indiana Battle Injury Jinx

By JOHN F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Indiana and Michigan match handicaps and football power here Saturday in the Wolverines' western conference debut before an expected crowd of about 56,000 fans.

Both teams have suffered injury losses. Indiana, winner over Iowa and loser to Ohio State this season, will be without Pete Russo, 215 pound right tackle. Twice beaten Michigan will play without Capt. Merritt Green, tackle Ralph Stribe and possibly its top runner, Frank Howell.

Gridders Expelled For Dorm Battle

MANHATTAN, Kans. (AP)—Three Kansas State College football players were dismissed yesterday for taking part in a dormitory fight in which one student was severely injured earlier this week.

William Craig, dean of students, said the players were Vincent Aubi of Newark, N. J., and Dick Candeluci, Freeport, N. Y., both freshmen, and Louis Albano, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., sophomore.

Donald K. Clair, of St. John, was injured in the fight. Clair is on the varsity squad, but it seen any action this year.

Clair was on the freshman team. The fight began when Clair asked one of the other players to leave his room. Before the fight, most of the dormitory students were either involved or trying to break it up.

NEW YORK (AP)—George Araujo, the No. 3 contender for the lightweight championship, tangles with Joey Brown of New Orleans tonight in the feature 10-round bout at St. Nicholas Arena.

Brown is the sixth-ranking contender for Lauro Salas' lightweight title.

Araujo will be the 7-5 favorite for the bout which will be televised over NBC starting at 10 p. m. (EST.).

Wisconsin Meets Obstacle In Ohio State's Buckeyes

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Wisconsin comes upon another big obstacle on the rocky road to the Big 10 championship and the Rose Bowl tomorrow when the No. 1 team in the country takes on Ohio State.

This is the top battle of a full schedule of important league and intercollegiate affairs.

Wisconsin vaulted to the top spot in the land in The Associated Press poll last week on the basis of its stunning triumph over Illinois, the defending league champion. This Ohio State team doesn't approach some of the former powerhouses

Texas A & M Is Set For Upset

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State is set to shoot for its 18th straight football win on Saturday.

Texas A & M, due in by plane this afternoon, was gunning for what would be the upset of the week if the Aggies could win this one.

Tomorrow more than 45,000 fans will jam Macklin Stadium to watch the home opener for the Spartans. Many more will see the game via a 60-station national telecast.

The two teams met before only once—back in 1934 when Michigan State won 26-13 at College Station, Texas.

Texas A & M, a college with an all-male enrollment called "The West Point of Texas," hopes to win the game on its air arm with quarterback Ray Graves doing most of the throwing.

Munn also is expected to make more use of his aerial arm this week. Tom Yewic, now the accepted quarterback, has been alternating his tosses between his halfbacks and ends to work some new confusion tactics into the MSC attack.

TODAY A YEAR AGO — The New York Yankees won the World Series, 4-2, by edging the New York Giants in the sixth game, 4-3.

FIVE YEARS AGO — The series for the 1947 World Series was announced as $5,000 for the Yankees and $4,000 for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

TEN YEARS AGO — Alsab outran Obash and Whirlaway in the New York Handicap of 2 1/4 miles.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The New York Giants traded four players to the St. Louis Cardinals for pitcher Ray Starr and catcher Gus Mancuso.

Dodgers Not Too Alarmed At Losing To Yankees

BROOKLYN (AP) All the excitement of the World Series having blown away, Brooklyn baseball fans today began to take stock of their club—and one big question:

What does the management have in store for next year in the way of deals to strengthen the National League champion? The Bums battled the New York Yankees down to the finish, only to lose the series in seven games, and he more critical blame ineffective pitching and first baseman Gil Hodges, who went hitless in 21 trips.

But Vice President Buzz Bavasi of the Dodgers says the front office has no idea of rushing into any deals just because they were beaten by the Yankees in the series.

"There appears to be a disposition to overlook the fact we did

Morenci Eyes 38th Win In Row, Longest Prep String

MORENCI (AP)—Football madness is again sweeping this tiny outstate Michigan town-home of the winningest football team in Michigan high school history.

The frenzy has annually stirred Morenci since 1948 when the high school launched a record victory string that's now run to 37 straight games without a defeat or tie.

The Morenci citizens really back their bulldogs—most home games draw more than 2,000 persons, 100 or so in excess of the town population.

Unscored Upon

The 1953 Morenci eleven, sparked by the fabulous Marcus Cisco at halfback, has already rolled over three foes without yielding a point.

The remaining six opponents—with the exception of one—shouldn't give the Bulldogs much trouble.

The only serious threat appears to be Blissfield, to be met Oct. 31. Morenci plays Tecumseh tonight.

Coach James Baxter took over the Bulldogs before the 1951 season began. He is pinning his from Columbus, but it should give Ivy Williamson's lads a run for their money.

Rare are the days when an Ivy League game rates the attention the Princeton-Penn affair is attracting. But these two powerhouses probably could put up a good fight against anyone. In addition, Princeton has a 24-game winning streak going, the longest in college football.

Rated Tossup

This is a tossup with Penn being given a one-point edge, probably on the basis of its 7-7 standoff against Notre Dame, while the boys from Tigertown have been warming up at the expense of lesser lights.

Michigan State, the heir apparent to the No. 1 rating vacated by Tennessee last year, has no sinecure in Texas A & M, but the Spartans are figured to win. Coach Biggie Munn would like to see his charges do their scoring early for a change, though. They're in the habit of easing the opposition along until the final minutes.

California, the favorite to play host to the big 10 entry in the Rose Bowl, should make hash of Oregon. Stanford, the defending

Brooklyn May Retain Campanella As Coach

BROOKLYN (AP)—Roy Campanella, Brooklyn's popular catching star, may become the first Negro coach in major league baseball, when his playing days are over.

Walter F. O'Malley, owner of the Dodgers, disclosed today he and the club's all-star receiver had discussed the idea at some length and that he was all in favor of employing Campanella as a Dodger coach "in a few years."

carry the fight into a seventh game, and that the Yankees had to beat only half of our club," Bavasi said. "So many of our key hitters did not hit."

Bavasi said he wasn't taking "any panic view of Hodges' position with the Brooklyn club. He's still a great fielder, a powerful batter."

After noting that the Dodgers finished the National League race 4 1/2 games in front of the Giants, Bavasi said:

"You don't recast a ball club because of developments in a World Series."

"Believe me, we are not going to tear this club apart just because we lost to the Yankees. There is bound to be a hysterical reaction after a defeat such as we suffered. Things will quiet down soon."

Frankie Albert Story Returning To Detroit

By HARRY STAPLER

DETROIT (AP)—Coming to Detroit Sunday: Chapter six in the "Frankie Albert story."

Frankie Albert, as the main character, will be quarterbacking the San Francisco 49ers when they meet the Detroit Lions in one of the National Football League's most important games.

The amphitheater in which chapter six will be staged is huge Briggs Stadium. And it's likely the largest crowd 54,000 or more ever to see a football game in Detroit will jam its seats and aisles.

Key Man

Albert is the key man in the so-called jinx the 49ers hold over the Lions, who rank as the next contender to San Francisco for the western division title.

Among his eight pass completions in the season opening 17-3 victory over the Lions was a 46-yard touchdown toss to J. R. Boone. That clinched the game.

And he's been instrumental in running up four victories in the five games played between the two teams.

The season-ending 21-17 defeat in 1951 cost the Lions the division title.

As one Lion official puts it: "Albert can't throw a good lone pass very often and his short passing game isn't always great but when he's in there something happens to those 49ers. They just go."

Unbeaten Team

San Francisco, only unbeaten team in the division, has won two. The Lions are tied with Chicago's Bears and Green Bay with 1-1 records.

Both the Lions and 49ers suffered losses by injuries. For the 49ers it will mean a line reshuffling, for the Lions a backfield juggling.

Coach Buck Shaw of the 49ers lost Visco Grigich and Nick Feher, defensive and offensive guards respectively, in last week's victory over Dallas. Don Burke and rookie Jerry Smith may be the replacements.

Summerall Out

Lion Coach Buddy Parker lost kickoff specialist and first string defensive end Pat Summerall, who broke his arm in the 17-14 win over the NFL champion Los Angeles Rams last Friday night.

Also ailing with leg injuries are first string left halfback Doak Walker and fullback Pat Harder.

If they can't play Jug Girard will go at the halfback post, regular right halfback Bob Hoernschemeyer will move to fullback and Lindell Pearson will play at right half.

Mediterranean Nudist Island Hard On Feet

By PRESTON GROVER
ISLE OF LEVANT, France (AP)—Life in this Mediterranean nudist colony is fine for the soul and hard on the feet.

The island lies 10 miles off France opposite the summer vacation spot of Le Lavandou. I took a boat ride over.

You do see nudists. As the boat comes in to the small dock, the nudists come running out from among the trees and rocks and help the passengers ashore. A big brown male nude gave me a friendly hand across the gap between the boat and the wharf.

Sunkist For 300 Days
The men are more nude than the women. The children are nudest of all—right spanking nude. The men wear a covering about the size of a folded pocket handkerchief, say five or six inches square. It seems to be enough. Some women wear halters but most let their breasts enjoy the fine cooling touch of the sea breezes and the warm rays of a sun which shines 300 days a year. Elsewhere the women wear about the smallest bathing suit you ever saw.

One young lassie of about 24 summers strolled by us, all golden brown, or almost all. She had been bathing along the coast on the French side, wearing the necessary halter and scanty pants. On the island she had discarded the halter. She had a case of sunburn.

The law requires that the minimum one piece of cloth be worn. We were told that a good many are not very particular about that when they get back into the "interior." I walked to the top of the island without excessive peering into the bushes and didn't see any law violations.

Shopping In Nude

The island is six miles long and two wide, containing nearly four square miles of trees, barren rocks and brush.

Mainly the island seems to be rocks, gravel, and dry paths under the trees.

Many live in tents although there are four small hotels. People come from England, Germany, Holland, France, Spain, Italy and both North and South America.

At a grocery store the nude little housewives buy long loaves of bread and sacks of food, cuddling them in their arms as they mince in bare or sandled feet along the gravel paths to their tents.

A Dutch naturist who was hep to this business said the island was awful hard on the feet. He had burned his bald skull until it was almost raw and bleeding but he left no doubt that it was just the thing to do for a vacation.

"There has been no talk whatever of remarriage," she told a newsman.

As for Taylor, his studio said he had no comment.

Vaudeville Age Over For TV, Says Berle

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The age of vaudeville is over for television, says Milton Berle, whose variety show made him TV's top draw.

Berle has abandoned his slam-bang vaudeo format this season, substituting a story-line program. He explained his reasons while table-hopping in the Warner Brothers commissary. He was visiting from the nearby NBC-TV studios, which he helped inaugurate last Saturday.

"I'd say I did about all I could with the vaudeville format," he remarked. "I was the first one in it, and I played it for four years. I miked it. That's why they call me Milkin' Berle, if you don't mind the bad joke."

Material Gets Thin

"The vaudeville format was great. In all modesty, I can say that I introduced to TV such performers as Lucille Ball, Martin and Lewis, Tony Martin, and many, many others who now have their own shows. That's one of the troubles now—so many of the big names have their own shows. There isn't good talent left to provide top shows 39 times a year."

"And another thing—people have gotten tired of the vaudeville type of show. You can't continue saying, 'And now I'd like to introduce—' before all the acts. You can't go on doing the same skits. The material is bound to get thin."

The comic added that the TV market was flooded with too many vaudeville shows after his initial success. And he predicts that the same thing will happen with situation-comedy shows, which are now the rage.

Public Gets Fed Up

"Everybody's looking at the success of Lucille Ball's show," he commented. "Now we'll have a flock of comedy shows like it. But after a year or so, the public will get fed up with the same routines like men behaving like women and women behaving like men."

Berle said he was delighted with his new show, which permits him some moments of restraint.

"People get to see a new side of me," he said. "I play myself, Milton Berle, and his troubles of putting a show together. I don't have to be out there yacking it up every minute. You can't be off all the time, anyway."

Berle, long known as a human dynamo, admitted that he was just as happy to be slowing down a bit. He appears on TV only three weeks out of four. The fourth week in his time slot is taken up by a circus-background show with Joe E. Brown, Dolores Gray and John Raitt.

"Another thing—I am now merely a performer," he added. "With my old show, I did everything—producing, directing, writing. The result was that I was neglecting my own performance. I was spreading myself too thin, and I didn't have enough time to devote to myself as an actor."

Letters To The Editor

TRUMAN'S TOUR

Dear Editor:

On Monday, October 6, 1952 your paper carried on page one a detailed discussion by Earnest B. Vaccaro on the cost of the current Truman campaign. Included in this article which you should have read is this paragraph:

"The Democratic National Committee has announced it is picking up the check for this 15 day

10:00 a. m. Sunday School 11:00 a. m. Harvest festival 8:00 p. m. Friday at the Town Hall.

Engadine—Sunday school 10:30 a. m. Worship service, 2 p. m.

Germfask—Sunday School, 10:30 a. m. Laymen's Day service 2:00 p. m. Ted Tonkin of Ishpeming, District Lay Leader will preach.

Trout Lake — Sunday school 10:00 a. m. Evening service at 8 p. m. on Tuesday.

speaking tour by Truman with an estimated figure of something under $25,000."

On Tuesday, October 7, 1952 you state in your editorial on page four referring to this Truman campaign: "The President's whistle stop 8,500-mile, 24-state campaign—all paid for out of taxes."

I believe that you should in the cause of accuracy and fairness publicly reconcile these two opposing statements lest you find yourself guilty of doing the very thing you deplore in your editorial—handling the tar brush and smearing.

It seems to me that an editor should give assiduous, impartial attention to facts and not for the sake of expediency publish misleading assumptions of which their have been all too many, confusing rather than clarifying the issue.

Sincerely yours,
Leonard T. Vader.
